MISS H. COPE PASSES AWAY SUNDAY NIGHT

Miss Helen L. Cope, 81, who served the Gettysburg public schools for 31 years as teacher, high school principal and supervising principal before her retirement nearly 18 years ago, died Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at her home at 64 West Middle street.

Death followed an illness of seven weeks and was due to a complication of diseases. She had been in failing health for the last three years. Her last illness began February 13 and she was a patient in the Warner hospital for several weeks, later returning to her home where her condition remained serious. She was only semi-conscious for the last several days and on Sunday lapsed into unconsciousness.

Supervising Principal

Coming to Gettysburg after 10 years of teaching in the public schools of Devon and other suburban Philadelphia towns in Chester county, Miss Cope took a teaching position in the Gettysburg high school, then located in the present Meade school building, during the principalship of J. D. Hunter. Later she became principal and following the death of the late W. A. Burgoon in 1916, she became supervising principal of the public schools of the town.

Miss Cope retired in June, 1926, the last year the Lincoln school was used as the high school building. She continued to maintain an active interest in school affairs and was always guest of honor at high school alumni banquets. At the banquet in the year of her retirement she was presented with a diamond ring by the alumni and was made an

Professor Guile W. Lefever, principal of the high school who served during Miss Cope's regime here made this statement:

"Miss Cope was one of the finest characters I ever met. She was a friend of youth and she retained that friendship and interest up to her death. She maintained her interest in our schools throughout her long life and she was in close touch with school affairs at all times. Less than two months ago she visited the high school. She enjoyed the students and liked to hear them cheer at their athletic games. Her passing is a definite loss to our community."

County Firemen To Meet Tonight

The third quarterly meeting of the Adams County Firemen's Association will be held this evening at Fair's store, Greenmount.

Speakers for the session will include Vernon B. Corle, chairman of the Gettysburg firemen's salvage committee and County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh who will speak on firemen's activities.

DIRECTORS TO MEET

The April meeting of the board of directors of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Chamber offices in the Kadel building.

Recommend Utz For Constable

Twelve residents of the second ward presented a petition to the county court here Saturday urging the appointment of Charles Utz, center square barber, as constable of the second ward to fill the post made vacant by the recent death of Charles J. "Chick" Myers.

The court will hold a hearing on the petition at 10 a. m. on April 21. Judge W. C. Sheely handed down an opinion in court here Saturday in the divorce action by Bernetta C. (Lott) Olinger vs. Jennings J. Olinger, in which he directed that the case be returned to the master, Richard A. Brown, Esq. for further testimony. The divorce is asked on grounds of desertion.

70 COUNTIANS GO IN NAVY AND ARMY TODAY

Seventy Adams county men left Gettysburg and New Oxford today for active duty in the armed forces—35 from New Oxford bound for Army duty and 35 others from Gettysburg to serve in the Navy and Marines.

Today's contingents were in addition to 19 Navy men sent out Saturday by the New Oxford board and 50 Army men scheduled to leave Gettysburg Tuesday morning.

Now On Duty

The others are: Charles William Zhea, John W. Sanders, Stewart E. Davis, Harry T. Baumgardner, Fulton Cleason-Martin, Harvey E. Witt, Lester P. Davis, Garnet L. McPerrin, Norman W. Dawn Service At Bendersville Sunday

The annual community Easter Dawn service will be held Sunday morning at 6 o'clock at Bethlehem Lutheran church, Bendersville. The Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, Gettysburg, who will preach the sermon, will be assisted by the Rev. George W. Harrison, pastor of the Bendersville Methodist church.

A choir, under the direction of Mrs. O. D. Coble, will sing "The Lord Is Risen," and "Hallelujah."

Given Wrong Credit For Donating Blood

The name of Mrs. Charles T. Ziegler, Springs avenue, should have been included in the list of persons contributing blood for the fourth, instead of the third time, at the Blood Donor station here on Friday. Mrs. Ziegler gave three pints of blood in 1943. Her card had been inadvertently placed in the wrong listing when the tabulation was made by the Blood Donor staff.

RETURNS HOME

Morris W. Stansbury, Baltimore street, returned to his home here Sunday after being confined to the Harrisburg hospital for two months. He submitted to a major operation there. Mr. Stansbury is employed by the state at Harrisburg.

SHEFFER IMPROVING

The condition of Clerk of the Court Howard W. Sheffer is reported to be gradually improving at his home on North Stratton street where he has been seriously ill.

Lane-Harbach Nuptials Are Solemnized Here On Sunday

Miss Dorothy Janice Harbach, 34 York street, became the bride of Ensign Walter B. Lane, USNR, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock before a crowded congregation at the Trinity Evangelical Reformed church. The Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who resigned as an ensign in the U. S. Navy Nurses corp, following naval regulations in regard to nurses who wed, wore a long train, a white mousseline de sois gown of princess lines with an illusion neckline adorned by a single string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her fingertip veil was draped over a seed pearl coronet. She carried a colonial bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. H. F. Harbach, is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in 1937 and the University of Pennsylvania hospital. She entered the USNR Nurses' Corp in 1942 and was assigned to hospital ship duty.

Ensign Lane is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William E. Lane of Jersey City, and is on leave as a correspondent for Life magazine.

A reception, sponsored by the Trinity Circle, was held in the church parlors at which time the bride and groom cut their wedding cake with a naval officer's sword.

Following the service and the reception the couple left for San Diego where the bridegroom will assume a new assignment as a photographic instructor for the Navy. The bride's going away outfit was a current colored wool suit, with orchid accessories and corsage.

FOUR COUNTIANS WED SUNDAY IN WESTMINSTER

Miss Margaret L. Flemming and Paul W. Dellinger, Jr., Gettysburg R. 4, and Miss Esther P. Dellinger, Gettysburg R. 4, and Adolphus Walker, New Oxford R. 2, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at a double ceremony performed in the Methodist church, Westminster, by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Ensor. The double ring ceremony was used.

Miss Flemming, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Flemming, Gettysburg R. 4, attended Gettysburg high school. Mr. Dellinger, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dellinger, Sr., Gettysburg R. 4, attended the Arendtsville vocational school and Gettysburg high school. He is a farmer and he and his bride will reside on his farm. Miss Flemming was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Dellinger, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dellinger, Sr., is a graduate of Gettysburg high school. Mr. Walker is a farmer, and a graduate of Gettysburg high school.

Hold Reception

Both of the brides wore white satin gowns and their bridesmaids were dressed in blue. The brides carried bouquets of white carnations and sweet peas and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Mrs. Fred Taylor, New Oxford, was bridesmaid and Robert Dellinger, a brother of the groom, was best man for the Flemming-Dellinger wedding. Miss Emma Grace, New Oxford R. 2 and George Walker, a brother of the bridegroom, were bridesmaid and best man respectively for the Dellinger-Walker nuptials. Miss Dellinger was given in marriage by her father.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dellinger, Sr., following the services. An organ recital was held prior to the ceremony.

CHURCHES HERE TO HOLD UNION SERVICES FRIDAY

The Rev. Dr. A. W. Bloomfield, stated clerk of the Presbytery of Cleveland, Ohio, will be the guest speaker at the community service to be held on Good Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the local Presbyterian church.

Doctor Bloomfield, in whose Presbytery the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, served before coming to Gettysburg last fall, will speak on the theme "The Cross Leads."

The Rev. Mr. Hunt will be in charge of the union service in which all of the Protestant churches of the town will participate. The Rev. R. M. Everette, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church, will read the scripture lesson and offer prayer.

Special Music

A/S William S. Cryer, of the 55th College Training Detachment, will be the guest soloist. He will sing "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?"

Dr. Bloomfield was born on Kingston on Thames, a suburb of London. His first pastorate in this country was at LeRaysville, Pa. He later served pastorates in Owego, New York and Cleveland. Nine years ago he was elected superintendent of church extension and stated clerk of the Cleveland Presbytery. In 1934, Wooster college conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. In addition to his Presbytery position, he is a general Presbyter of the Ohio Synod and is superintendent of the Presbyterian Union.

During World War 1, he served overseas for a year on the International Commission of the American, British and French Churches.

RAY HOFFMAN WILL SUCCEED D. M'PHERSON

The appointment of Ray M. Hoffman, member of the Gettysburg borough council and vice president and assistant treasurer of the Victor Products Corporation of Pennsylvania, as the new chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board and as county coordinator was announced today.

Mr. Hoffman was named by the Harrisburg district office of the OPA upon recommendation of the county Council of Defense to succeed Donald P. McPherson, Jr., Esq., who has resigned because of his impending induction into the U. S. Army.

Although Mr. Hoffman now is officially the chairman of Local Ration Board 261.1, the official designation of the local unit, he will not assume his full duties until May 1 shortly after his return from a trip to California which he will begin in about 10 days. Until that time Mr. McPherson, unofficially, will serve in his stead.

Mr. McPherson, who until recently also was chairman of the now disbanded county ration board, began his services in December, 1941, when the first rationing of tires and tubes was started soon after Pearl Harbor. He has served continuously since that time as one essential commodity after another was added to the ration list and more complicated ration and price control regulations were placed in force.

Plan No Changes

Mr. Hoffman said today he expects to follow the policies and procedures set up under Mr. McPherson's administration.

In his letter of resignation to the district OPA at Harrisburg, Mr. (Please Turn to Page 5)

HEART ATTACK PROVES FATAL TO J. E. KIMPLE

J. Edward Kimple, 62, Buchanan Valley, died suddenly at his home Saturday afternoon at 12:15 o'clock from a heart attack. He had suffered from a heart condition for some time but had been in his usual health Saturday morning and was working about the house when he became seriously ill about 10 o'clock.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and attributed death to a heart attack.

The deceased was born in Adams county, a son of the late Henry and Mary (Brady) Kimple, and practiced farming all his life. He was a member of St. Ignatius Catholic church.

Surviving are his widow, the former Lula Kane, to whom he was married in 1909; two children, J. William, Buchanan Valley, and Miss Regina A. Kimple, York; three grandchildren, 10 brothers and sisters, Mrs. Jane McConrick, Mrs. George Irvin, Mrs. Joseph Strausbaugh, Frank and Paul, all of Buchanan Valley; Bernard, Arendtsville; Mrs. Allen Kane, Fairfield; Mrs. Charles Culp and Mrs. George McConrick, both of Gettysburg, and Albert, Gettysburg R. D.

Funeral services Tuesday morning, meeting at the late home at 8 o'clock with a mass at 9 o'clock at St. Ignatius Catholic church conducted by the Rev. Daniel J. Crowley. Interment in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the late home this evening.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Two letters in our morning's mail are published herewith. No comment that we might make would add to their significance and meaning. They are self-explanatory. Here they are:

From Corporal Richard T. Morrison, Care of the Postmaster at New Orleans:

"It gave me a big thrill to read your issue of February 4 which reported that Adams County leads the Nation in obtaining the highest percentage of its Fourth War Bond Campaign quota, and it made me proud to show the article to all my buddies here. They all think the people in my county the doing a real swell job in backing up the boys in the service with such a fine response in bond purchase investments."

"News like that about Adams county is a big factor in keeping up the morale of the men who are far away from home doing this necessary job, and it is nice to know that the people back home are behind us. I know that if people throughout the country come through in the same way as those in Adams County, the time we have to be away from home will be proportionately shorter, and we will be able to come back to our loved ones that much sooner."

"I know that the people of Adams County, by backing the attack as they are with their money, want an early victory so that they can return to the building of the future for us and for our descendants. I know that they are looking forward to the higher things that mean so much in the American way of life—spiritual, educational, cultural and democratic."

"Let this letter be an expression of my own appreciation and that of my fellow-soldiers for the patriotism and devotion of my fellow-citizens of Adams County in supporting our country's war effort."

From Pfc. J. H. Palmer, care of the Postmaster, San Francisco:

"Just a few lines to let you know how proud I am of the Gettysburg Times and all the people of Adams County. It was with great pleasure that I read in the paper that the county was the first one to go over the top in the Bond Drive. It is with great pride that I can say that I am a citizen of our prosperous county."

"I receive The Times at regular intervals. It takes it a long time to get here but it sure is welcome."

"With the best of luck to all the folks at home I remain your sincere friend."

COUPLE MARKS GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Stavely, East King street, Littlestown, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home Sunday.

Lewis G. and Rose A. Buddy Stavely were married on April 3, 1894 in St. Aloysius church by the Rev. Thomas J. Crotty, who was pastor at that time. Their attendants were Ellen Buddy, now deceased, sister of the bride, and William V. Sneeringer, nephew of the bride, who attended the celebration Sunday. A dinner was served for the members of the immediate family. The dining room table was attractively decorated with a color scheme of gold and white and the centerpiece was a three-tier cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Cut flowers were in gold candlesticks and the favors were of gold and white.

Four generations were represented at the gathering: L. G. Stavely, son, Harry; grandson, Harry, Jr., and great-grandson, Harry, III. The couple received many gifts and cards of congratulations.

In Italy

Allied Headquarters, Naples, April 3 (AP)—Allied troops have smashed an attack by German flame-throwers on the left flank of the beachhead below Rome, headquarters announced today, while Italian troops fighting with the Allies occupied a third peak in the center of the main Fifth Army front.

An enemy convoy and its escort have been wiped out in the Adriatic, headquarters announced. A bulletin said light forces of the French Navy "entirely destroyed" the convoy after a sharp encounter and that the French withdrew without damage or casualties.

Flame-throwers spearheaded the attack of about 150 German infantrymen against the beachhead, which began an hour before dusk Friday after a heavy mortar barrage. It was launched in the same vicinity as the raid of the previous day in which the Germans forced a slight withdrawal by the Allies from a position about a mile and a half southwest of Carroccio, 21 miles below Rome.

Although the mortar fire continued to thunder throughout the night, the infantry attackers were either dead or routed by midnight.

On the same night the Germans opened a concentrated artillery bombardment of a sector some distance away held by a battalion of American infantry.

In India

(By The Associated Press)

Roads around Imphal, Manipur capital and important Allied communication center in India have been cut by Japanese patrols, but British officials at New Delhi do not fear for the safety of the garrison there.

A statement from the New Delhi Allied headquarters of Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten replying to the question whether air-borne supplies might be dropped to the Imphal garrison said that would not be necessary as the crisis would be overcome before such action was needed.

Other Japanese forces trying to reach the highway leading southward to Tiddam were driven off.

On High Seas

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, April 3 (AP)—Truk and Ponape, Japanese strongpoints in the central Pacific Caroline islands, have been pounded again by American bombers.

Just before dawn Friday (United States time) Liberators of the 7th Air Force struck at Dublon, central island in the Truk atoll, for the fourth time in as many nights and for about the eighth time in four days.

Medium anti-aircraft fire greeted the raiding Americans, but none of the attacking planes was damaged. The Japanese sent up two interceptors in the pre-dawn strike, the bomber crews reported, but took in the show as spectators, showing no inclination to mix it.

Large fires were started in Dublon island installations, the Americans reported.

Army Mitchell bombers, escorted by 4th Marine Aircraft Wing Corsairs, went on a mission against Ponape where they were met by ineffective ack-ack fire, the same day. A lone Liberator also bombed Ponape in a separate attack. It was the 21st attack against that eastern Caroline base. All planes returned safely.

Urges Observance Of "Good Friday"

Following a custom dating back many years, Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer today urged merchants of town to close their establishments from noon to 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in observance of Good Friday.

Noting that in previous years nearly every store in the borough has closed for the three hours Burgess Pfeffer said "the day is one of great religious significance and it should be observed with due solemnity."

KEPT IN 1A

John Robert Legore, Hanover, has been continued in 1A after an appeal taken by his employer was refused by the area board of appeals, according to an announcement by the New Oxford draft board today.

Mrs. Longenecker Heckenhuber's candy for sale at her home in Arendtsville, not at Bushman's store.

London, April 3 (AP) — Red Army troops, having smashed across the Prut river in their first invasion of Axis soil were reported driving across eastern Rumania toward the Danube river delta and the Carpathian mountains today as Moscow announced that other Russian forces had struck to within 19 miles of the great Black Sea port of Odessa, 150 miles to the southeast.

Soviet Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov, in announcing the invasion of Rumania, said it was dictated by military necessity and not with the aim of seizing "any part of Rumanian territory"—a statement that was warmly welcomed in official British circles.

The Russian communique failed to identify the exact location of the several announced crossings of the Prut, but Berlin said the main Soviet drive into Rumania was in the last sector, less than 200 miles northeast of Bucharest and the valuable Ploesti oil fields. Berlin added that "all the Rumanian army has joined battle with the Russians."

Marital law already has been proclaimed in Bucharest, Moscow dispatches reported.

Seek Rail Center

Iasi, apparent immediate objective of Marshal Ivan S. Konev's Second Ukrainian Army, is 10 miles west of the Prut, and is a key Rumanian railway center where lines branch south to Bucharest and northeast to captured Czernowitz, 115 miles away. Gertsu, 20 miles southeast of Czernowitz on the north Rumanian border, was taken by troops of Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First Ukrainian Army yesterday, Moscow said, and it was believed likely that Soviet spearheads had also crossed into Rumania at this point.

Take Prisoners

The Jijia, north of Iasi, runs parallel to the Prut five miles to the west, and the Rumanian bulletin gave the first indication that Konev's troops had advanced that far into Rumania. The communique also declared that Russian thrusts toward the Iasi-Kishinev railway had been repulsed by German troops, and that "no important event occurred in the Crimea or on the Black Sea shore."

Other divisions of Zhukov's army, meanwhile, swept nearer to the Carpathian mountain passes leading into Hungary, inflicting heavy losses on Axis troops, taking many prisoners and capturing enormous stores of military booty, Moscow declared.

The important strongholds of Kutov and Kutu, 37 miles southwest of Czernowitz and not far from the famous Tatar pass, fell to Zhukov's troops, and Berlin broadcasts indicated that Tarnopol and Kovel further north in Old Poland were about to capitulate to the Russians.

In The Pacific

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, April 3 (AP)—American forces increased the pace of their campaign against Madag on New Guinea today and seemed nearly finished with their five-month drive to wipe out all opposition to their hold on Bougainville in the Solomons.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced that United States troops captured two strategic hills outside the Empress Augusta bay beach head which the Americans have been slowly enlarging since their invasion November 1.

For the last several weeks the Japanese, previously described as abandoned and cut off from supply and reinforcement, have fiercely counterattacked the Americans on Bougainville. But on March 29 Major Gen. Oscar Griswold, Allied commander on the island, said "the Japs have had about enough," and were withdrawing.

In New Guinea Americans strengthened their drive on Bogad-jim, 20 miles south of strategic, coastal Madag, against which the Allies have been marching since last September. Australians in the Finesterrre hills southwest of the Americans met and repulsed Japanese counterattacks, the MacArthur communique said. (The April 1 communique placed the Australians 10 miles south of Bogad-jim.)

The Americans' advance today brought them within 13 miles of Bogad-jim.

The condition of Clerk of the Court Howard W. Sheffer is reported to be gradually improving at his home on North Stratton street where he has been seriously ill.

Lane-Harbach Nuptials Are Solemnized Here On Sunday

Miss Dorothy Janice Harbach, 34 York street, became the bride of Ensign Walter B. Lane, USNR, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock before a crowded congregation at the Trinity Evangelical Reformed church. The Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who resigned as an ensign in the U. S. Navy Nurses corp, following naval regulations in regard to nurses who wed, wore a long train, a white mousseline de sois gown of princess lines with an illusion neckline adorned by a single string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her fingertip veil was draped over a seed pearl coronet. She carried a colonial bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Musical Program

Prof. Frederick G. Troxell, Baltimore street, gave the bride away. Dr. Frederick Tilberg was soloist for the musical portion of the ceremony which included Grieg's "Ich Liebe Dich" and "Because." Miss Alice Snyder accompanied on the organ. "Peace, Perfect Peace" was played during the ceremony. Altar decorations for the Palm Sunday ceremony were palms, Easter lilies and baskets of snapdragons, carnations and roses.

Maid of honor was Ensign Rowena Troutman, NCUSNR, stationed at St. Albans, New York. Best man was Robert A. Danielson, Jersey City. Bridesmaids were First Lt. Jeanne Hoffman, Army Nurses Corps, and shipmates of former Ensign Harbach on a hospital ship for nearly a year in the South Pacific, including: Lt. (jg) Catherine Shaw of New York, Ensign Sue Keizer of Brooklyn, New York, and Lt. (jg) Juanita Mitchell and Lt. (jg) Ellen Miller of the Nurses' Corp, USNR. The latter two are stationed at Bethesda, Maryland. Ushers were Capt. Stanley C. Settle, U. S. Army, Aberdeen, Maryland; Capt. Howard Blair, U. S. Army, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey; Miss Margaret L. Flemming and Paul W. Dellinger, Jr., Gettysburg R. 4, and Miss Esther P. Dellinger, Gettysburg R. 4, and Adolphus Walker, New Oxford R. 2, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at a double ceremony performed in the Methodist church, Westminster, by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Ensor. The double ring ceremony was used.

Miss Flemming, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Flemming, Gettysburg R. 4, attended Gettysburg high school. Mr. Dellinger, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dellinger, Sr., Gettysburg R. 4, attended the Ardenstville vocational school and Gettysburg high school. He is a farmer and he and his bride will reside on his farm. Miss Flemming was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Dellinger, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dellinger, Sr., is a graduate of Gettysburg high school. Mr. Walker is a farmer, and a graduate of Gettysburg high school.

Hold Reception

Both of the brides wore white satin gowns and their bridesmaids were dressed in blue. The brides carried bouquets of white carnations and sweet peas and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Mrs. Fred Taylor, New Oxford, was bridesmaid and Robert Dellinger, a brother of the groom, was best man for the Flemming-Dellinger wedding. Miss Emma Grace, New Oxford R. 2 and George Walker, a brother of the bridegroom were bridesmaid and best man respectively for the Dellinger-Walker nuptials. Miss Dellinger was given in marriage by her father.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Dellinger, Sr., following the services. An organ recital was held prior to the ceremony.

CHURCHES HERE TO HOLD UNION SERVICES FRIDAY

The Rev. Dr. A. W. Bloomfield, stated clerk of the Presbytery of Cleveland, Ohio, will be the guest speaker at the community service to be held on Good Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the local Presbyterian church.

Doctor Bloomfield, in whose Presbytery the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, served before coming to Gettysburg last fall, will speak on the theme "The Cross Leads."

The Rev. Mr. Hunt will be in charge of the union service in which all of the Protestant churches of the town will participate. The Rev. R. M. Everette, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church, will read the scripture lesson and offer prayer.

Special Music

A/S William S. Cryer, of the 55th College Training Detachment, will be the guest soloist. He will sing "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?"

Dr. Bloomfield was born on Kingston on Thames, a suburb of London. His first pastorate in this country was at LeRayville, Pa. He later served pastorates in Owego, New York and Cleveland. Nine years ago he was elected superintendent of church extension and stated clerk of the Cleveland Presbytery. In 1934, Wooster college conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. In addition to his Presbytery position, he is a general Presbyter of the Ohio Synod and is superintendent of the Presbyterian Union.

During World War I, he served overseas for a year on the International Commission of the American, British and French Churches.

RAY HOFFMAN WILL SUCCEED D. M'PHERSON

The appointment of Ray M. Hoffman, member of the Gettysburg borough council and vice president and assistant treasurer of the Victor Products Corporation of Pennsylvania, as the new chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board and as county coordinator was announced today.

Mr. Hoffman was named by the Harrisburg district office of the OPA upon recommendation of the county Council of Defense to succeed Donald P. McPherson, Jr., Esq., who has resigned because of his impending induction into the U. S. Army.

Although Mr. Hoffman now is officially the chairman of Local Ration Board 261.1, the official designation of the local unit, he will not assume his full duties until May 1 shortly after his return from a trip to California which he will begin in about 10 days. Until that time Mr. McPherson, unofficially, will serve in his stead.

Mr. McPherson, who until recently also was chairman of the now disbanded county ration board, began his services in December, 1941, when the first rationing of tires and tubes was started soon after Pearl Harbor. He has served continuously since that time as an essential commodity under another was added to the ration list and more complicated ration and price control regulations were placed in force.

Plan No Changes

Mr. Hoffman said today he expects to follow the policies and procedures set up under Mr. McPherson's administration.

HEART ATTACK PROVES FATAL TO J. E. KIMPLE

J. Edward Kimple, 62, Buchanan Valley, died suddenly at his home Saturday afternoon at 12:15 o'clock from a heart attack. He had suffered from a heart condition for some time but had been in his usual health Saturday morning and was working about the house when he became seriously ill about 10 o'clock.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, investigated and attributed death to a heart attack.

The deceased was born in Adams county, a son of the late Henry and Mary (Brady) Kimple, and practiced farming all his life. He was a member of St. Ignatius Catholic church.

Surviving are his widow, the former Lula Kane, to whom he was married in 1909; two children, J. William, Buchanan Valley, and Miss Regina A. Kimple, York; three grandchildren, 10 brothers and sisters, Mrs. Jane McKenrick, Mrs. George Irvin, Mrs. Joseph Strausbaugh, Frank and Paul, all of Buchanan Valley; Bernard, Ardenstville; Mrs. Allen Kane, Fairfield; Mrs. Charles Culp and Mrs. George McKenrick, both of Gettysburg, and Albert, Gettysburg R. D.

Funeral services Tuesday morning, meeting at the late home at 8 o'clock with a mass at 9 o'clock at St. Ignatius Catholic church conducted by the Rev. Daniel J. Crowley. Interment in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the late home this evening.

Trainers Of Fliers

Melvin Wilson Fiedler, son of the late Harris Fiedler and Mrs. Lydia Fiedler, was born in Greenbury, Pa., August 6, 1919. He attended Clinton county public school and graduated from Sugar Valley Vocational high school in 1937. He has been in the Air Corps Reserve since August, 1942.

Fiedler started his flying career in 1939 when he joined the Cub Flyers' club of the Piper Aircraft company, at Lock Haven. The club was sponsored by the company for its employees. He received his first flying lesson July 26, 1939, and soloed December 15, of the same year. He received his private pilot's license on April 16, 1941.

Fiedler delivered planes for the Piper company over week-ends until late in the summer of 1942 when he joined the Air Corps Reserve. He took a secondary instructor's refresher course at Waynesboro and in September of 1942 received his commercial license and instructor's rating.

He came to Gettysburg in January, 1943, joining the flight instructors' staff at the Gettysburg School of Aeronautics. While here he married Miss Bette Dillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Dillman, East Middle street.

Fiedler has logged 1,104 hours of flying time.

Russians Smash Into Rumania In Relentless Push

Here And There News Collected At Random

Two letters in our morning's mail are published herewith. No comment that we might make would add to their significance and meaning. They are self-explanatory. Here they are:

From Corporal Richard T. Morrison, Care of the Postmaster at New Orleans:

"It gave me a big thrill to read your issue of February 4 which reported that Adams County leads the Nation in obtaining the highest percentage of its Fourth War Bond Campaign quota, and it made me proud to show the article to all my buddies here. They all think the people in my county are doing a real swell job in backing up the boys in the service with such a fine response in bond purchase investments.

"News like that about Adams county is a big factor in keeping up the morale of the men who are far away from home doing this necessary job, and it is nice to know that the people back home are behind us. I know that if people throughout the country come through in the same way as those in Adams County, the time we have to be away from home will be proportionately shorter, and we will be able to come back to our loved ones that much sooner.

"I know that the people of Adams County, by backing the attack as they are with their money, want an early victory so that they can return to the building of the future for us and for our descendants. I know that they are looking forward to the higher things that mean so much in the American way of life—spiritual, educational, cultural and democratic.

"Let this letter be an expression of my own appreciation and that of my fellow-soldiers for the patriotism and devotion of my fellow-citizens of Adams County in supporting our country's war effort."

From Pfc. J. H. Palmer, care of the Postmaster, San Francisco:

"Just a few lines to let you know how proud I am of The Gettysburg Times and all the people of Adams County. It was with great pleasure that I read in the paper that the county was the first one to go over the top in the Bond Drive. It is with great pride that I can say that I am a citizen of our prosperous county.

"I receive The Times at regular intervals. It takes it a long time to get here but it sure is welcome.

"With the best of luck to all the folks at home I remain your sincere friend."

COUPLE MARKS GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis G. Stavelly, East King street, Littlestown, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home Sunday.

Lewis G. and Rose A. Buddy Stavelly were married on April 3, 1894 in St. Aloysius church by the Rev. Thomas J. Crotty, who was pastor at that time. Their attendants were Ellen Buddy, now deceased, sister of the bride, and William V. Sneeringer, nephew of the bride, who attended the celebration Sunday. A dinner was served for the members of the immediate family. The dining room table was attractively decorated with a color scheme of gold and white and the centerpiece was a three-tier cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Cut flowers were in gold candlesticks and the favors were of gold and white.

Four generations were represented at the gathering: L. G. Stavelly, son, Harry; grandson, Harry, Jr., and great-grandson, Harry, III. The couple received many gifts and cards of congratulations.

In Italy

Allied Headquarters, Naples, April 3 (AP)—Allied troops have smashed an attack by German flame-throwers on the left flank of the beachhead below Rome, headquarters announced today, while Italian troops fighting with the Allies occupied a third peak in the center of the main Fifth Army front.

An enemy convoy and its escort have been wiped out in the Adriatic, headquarters announced. A bulletin said light forces of the French Navy "entirely destroyed" the convoy after a sharp encounter and that the French withdrew without damage or casualties.

Flame-throwers spearheaded the attack of about 150 German infantrymen against the beachhead, which began an hour before dusk Friday after a heavy mortar barrage. It was launched in the same vicinity as the raid of the previous day in which the Germans forced a slight withdrawal by the Allies from a position about a mile and a half southwest of Carroceto, 21 miles below Rome.

Although the mortar fire continued to thunder throughout the night, the infantry attackers were either dead or routed by midnight.

On the same night the Germans opened a concentrated artillery bombardment of a sector some distance away held by a battalion of American infantry.

In India

(By The Associated Press)

Roads around Imphal, Manipur capital and important Allied communication center in India have been cut by Japanese patrols, but British officials at New Delhi do not fear for the safety of the garrison there.

A statement from the New Delhi Allied headquarters of Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten replying to the question whether air-borne supplies might be dropped to the Imphal garrison said that would not be necessary as the crisis would be overcome before such action was needed.

Other Japanese forces trying to reach the highway leading southward to Tiddam were driven off.

On High Seas

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, April 3 (AP)—Truk and Ponape, Japanese strongpoints in the central Pacific Caroline islands, have been pounded again by American bombers.

Just before dawn Friday (United States time) Liberators of the 7th Air Force struck at Dublon, central island in the Truk atoll, for the fourth time in as many nights and for about the eighth time in four days.

Medium anti-aircraft fire greeted the raiding Americans, but none of the attacking planes was damaged. The Japanese sent up two interceptors in the pre-dawn strike, the bomber crews reported, but took in the show as spectators, showing no inclination to mix it.

Large fires were started in Dublon island installations, the Americans reported.

Army Mitchell bombers, escorted by 4th Marine Aircraft Wing Corsairs, went on a mission against Ponape where they were met by ineffective ack-ack fire, the same day. A lone Liberator also bombed Ponape in a separate attack. It was the 21st attack against that eastern Caroline base. All planes returned safely.

Urges Observance Of "Good Friday"

Following a custom dating back many years, Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer today urged merchants of town to close their establishments from noon to 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in observance of Good Friday.

Noting that in previous years nearly every store in the borough has closed for the three hours Burgess Pfeffer said "the day is one of great religious significance and it should be observed with due solemnity."

London, April 3 (AP) — Red Army troops, having smashed across the Prut river in their first invasion of Axis soil were reported driving across eastern Rumania today as Moscow announced that other Russian forces had struck to within 19 miles of the great Black Sea port of Odessa, 150 miles to the southeast.

Soviet Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov, in announcing the invasion of Rumania, said it was dictated by military necessity and not with the aim of seizing "any part of Rumanian territory"—a statement that was warmly welcomed in official British circles.

The Russian communique failed to identify the exact location of the several announced crossings of the Prut, but Berlin said the main Soviet drive into Rumania was in the Iasi sector, less than 200 miles northeast of Bucharest and the valuable Ploesti oil fields. Berlin added that "all the Rumanian army has joined battle with the Russians." Martial law already has been proclaimed in Bucharest, Moscow dispatches reported.

Seek Rail Center

Iasi, apparent immediate objective of Marshal Ivan S. Konev's Second Ukrainian Army, is 10 miles west of the Prut, and is a key Rumanian railway center where lines branch south to Bucharest and northeast to captured Cernowitz, 115 miles away. Gertsa, 20 miles southeast of Cernowitz on the north Rumanian border, was taken by troops of Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First Ukrainian Army yesterday, Moscow said, and it was believed likely that Soviet spearheads had also crossed into Rumania at this point.

A Rumanian high command communique broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded here by the Associated Press, acknowledged the Red Army's drive into Rumania proper, but said that "north of Iasi at almost every point the enemy was pushed back over the Jijia river."

Take Prisoners

The Jijia, north of Iasi, runs parallel to the Prut five miles to the west, and the Rumanian bulletin gave the first indication that Konev's troops had advanced that far into Rumania. The communique also declared that Russian thrusts toward the Iasi-Kishinev railway had been repulsed by German troops, and that "no important event occurred in the Crimea or on the Black Sea shore."

Other divisions of Zhukov's army, meanwhile, swept nearer to the Carpathian mountain passes leading into Hungary, inflicting heavy losses on Axis troops, taking many prisoners and capturing enormous stores of military booty, Moscow declared.

The important strongholds of Kuzov and Kutzy, 37 miles southwest of Cernowitz and not far from the famous Tatar pass, fell to Zhukov's troops, and Berlin broadcasts indicated that Tarnopol and Kovel further north in Old Poland were about to capitulate to the Russians.

In The Pacific

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, April 3 (AP)—American forces increased the pace of their campaign against Madang on New Guinea today and seemed nearly finished with their five-month drive to wipe out all opposition to their hold on Bougainville in the Solomons.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced that United States troops captured two strategic hills outside the Empress Augusta bay beach head which the Americans have been slowly enlarging since their invasion November 1.

For the last several weeks the Japanese, previously described as abandoned and cut off from supply and reinforcement, have fiercely counterattacked the Americans on Bougainville. But on March 29 Major Gen. Oscar Griswold, Allied commander on the island, said "the Japs have had about enough," and were withdrawing.

In New Guinea Americans strengthened their drive on Bogadjim, 20 miles south of strategic, coastal Madang, against which the Allies have been marching since last September. Australians in the Finesterrre hills southwest of the Americans met and repulsed Japanese counterattacks, the MacArthur communique said. (The April 1 communique placed the Australians 10 miles south of Bogadjim.)

The Americans' advance today brought them within 13 miles of Bogadjim.

RED INVASION OF RUMANIA IS BLOW TO NAZIS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The big news of the day is that Red troops are actually on Rumanian soil, not only because of its military importance but because it provides strong evidence to refute the German-inspired report that when the Russians had evicted the enemy from their territory they would halt on the borders and let the rest of the Allies fight it out with the Axis.

Of course one swallow doesn't make a summer, and invasion of Rumania doesn't necessarily mean invasion of Germany. Still, Moscow has said it certainly is headed for Berlin, and there's no reason to doubt it.

Shrewd Move

The Soviet government has made a shrewd move in announcing that it has no intention of annexing any Rumanian territory but is impelled merely by military necessity. This is calculated to inspire the Rumanians to lay down their arms, and it can't help but have a salutary effect on a population which for weeks has been panicky over the approach of Red troops.

The same thing can be said of Bulgaria. Both these countries long have been held in the war only through fear inspired by the presence of German troops on their soil. They are likely to slip from under Hitler's domination as soon as he is forced to relax his military grip on their throats.

The Russians appear to be driving to the Black Sea coast on the right wing of their advance, and to be making their main thrust towards Iasi (Jassy), an important railway junction on the route towards the Danubian delta and the Ploesti oil fields. If the Germans and Rumanians intend to make a fight of it, their resistance will be shown almost immediately.

Destroying Odessa

One of the great dramas of the war is unfolding in the Odessa area of the southern Ukraine. The on-rushing Reds are almost within sight of that important Black Sea port. Meantime the Axis forces are reported to be carrying out demolitions in Odessa which incidentally was one of the handsomest cities in all Russia. This means the Nazis are preparing for evacuation. However, it doesn't necessarily signify that they won't defend the town stubbornly. An undetermined number of Axis troops—perhaps as many as 200,000—are in danger of being cut off in the Odessa zone, and they won't submit easily.

While all this is going on at the southern end of the Russian front, another event of vast importance is reported from the extreme north. Finland is said in Stockholm to be considering an offer of mild peace terms from Russia. Unofficial dispatches say Moscow is offering to let the Finns keep the Hangoe peninsula and the city of Viborg—a matter of moment to Helsinki. Withdrawal of Finland from the war at this crucial juncture would be a boon to the Allies.

Severe Strain

This is one of the tense moments of the war, as we hang on the unfolding of the great Russian onslaught, and await the coming of the Allied invasion of western Europe. Fuehrer Hitler and his people must be enduring a strain comparable with that under which the Allies labored during the awful hours of Dunkerque.

We see a measure of the Hitlerian tension in the feverish preparations of the Nazis to meet the gathering storm in the west, while fighting for their very lives in the east. The widespread flooding of Holland in itself speaks loudly of nerves. The Germans wouldn't have gone to this extreme unless they thought the final test of strength was close.

There's one thing we should bear in mind in assessing the position. It's possible the Nazis may get a breathing spell on the Russian front, due to the spring mud. We can't tell yet, for this has been an exceptional season, but it certainly seems possible that the Red drives may be vastly slowed down shortly for a month or so.

At a pretty, late afternoon ceremony at Keller Memorial Lutheran church, Washington, D. C., Sunday, Miss Helen Kathryn Palmer and Dr. Harold Heiges, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dale Heiges, of Biglerville, were united in marriage.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Robert Earl Palmer, of Washington and Gaithersburg, Maryland, was given in marriage by Mervin H. Browne. She wore a gown of white tulle with yoke of marguerite with ruffling of tulle forming a low shoulder neckline and train. Her finger tip length veil fell from a Mary Queen of Scots halo and she carried a bridal bouquet of white rose buds.

Bridal Attendants

Miss Madeline Murray, the bride's only attendant, wore a rose marguerite gown and a coronet of roses with a short rose veil. Her bouquet was of sweetheart roses.

Harold Kline, of Philadelphia, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ushers were G. Justus Kaiser and J. Edgar Burnell.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Charles Hershey, the bride's sister, sang "Because" and "I Love Thee," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Flora Palmer Weber, cousin of the bride. Rev. Donald R. Heiges, of Gettysburg, the bridegroom's brother, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Cedric Tilberg, associate pastor of the church.

After a reception for members of the immediate families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Justus Kaiser, at Silver Springs, Maryland, Dr. and Mrs. Heiges left for New York city. Upon their return they will make their home after May 1 at 4409 18th street, Washington.

On Wedding Trip

The bride is a graduate of Sibley Memorial hospital in Washington. The bridegroom attended Gettysburg college and is a graduate of George Washington University, Washington, D. C. He served his internship at Sibley Memorial hospital and is now engaged in general practice in Washington.

High Court Rules Negro Vote In Texas

Washington, April 3 (AP)—The supreme court ruled today that negroes have the right to vote in a Texas Democratic primary to nominate candidates for Congress.

Justice Reed delivered the 8-1 decision, which was of far-reaching importance in those southern states where the choice at a primary is usually equivalent to election.

The majority opinion states that "the right to vote in such a primary for the nomination of candidates without discrimination by the state, like the right to vote in a general election, is a right secured by the Constitution."

"By the terms of the 15th Amendment that right may not be abridged by any state on account of race. Under our Constitution, the great privilege of choosing his rulers may not be denied a man by the state because of his color."

Thompson Wealth Puzzling Mystery

Chicago, April 3 (AP)—The mystery of where William Hale Thompson, "Big Bill the Builder" who served three terms as Chicago's mayor—got that $1,446,250 currency hoard found in two safety deposit boxes after his death remained unsolved today. And two more boxes await investigation later in the week.

Thompson's attorney, James W. Breen, said he believed there was more money to be found, possibly $1,000,000, and suggested that Thompson, before the 1929 crash, had converted his stock holdings into cash to put away against the hypothetical rainy day.

Breen asserted Thompson then sold nearly $2,000,000 worth of Middle West Utilities stock—the Insull firm—and stowed the money away. When he died three weeks ago, his estate was valued at only about $150,000, and no will has been found yet.

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Co-operative relationship between county war boards of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Selective Service will continue under the new system of determining military deferment of farm workers, state War Board Chairman Clyde A. Zehner announced today.

Prayer for Easter

Hardest of all, dear Lord, to bear
Is that my boy on some far shore
Should wounded lie, and I not there—
(Always I was there before.)

That someone else now takes my place,
Bends in pity, swift to do
All he needs. Oh, by Thy grace,
Let him feel my presence, too!

MOTHERS of America, you can make him feel your presence in a very real way. You can help supply the very medicines that may save his life! One tablespoon of used fat alone makes enough sulfadiazine ointment to treat 35 wounded men!

So save every precious drop of used fats (in any kind of tin can, not glass). When can is full, take it to your butcher; he will give you 2 free red points and 4¢ for every pound. Start today!

RED INVASION OF RUMANIA IS BLOW TO NAZIS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The big news of the day is that Red troops are actually on Rumanian soil, not only because of its military importance but because it provides strong evidence to refute the German-inspired report that when the Russians had evicted the enemy from their territory they would halt on the borders and let the rest of the Allies fight it out with the Axis.

Of course one swallow doesn't make a summer, and invasion of Rumania doesn't necessarily mean invasion of Germany. Still, Moscow has said it certainly is headed for Berlin, and there's no reason to doubt it.

Shrewd Move

The Soviet government has made shrewd move in announcing that it has no intention of annexing any Rumanian territory but is impelled merely by military necessity. This is calculated to inspire the Rumanians to lay down their arms, and it can't help but have a salutary effect on a population which for weeks has been panicky over the approach of Red troops.

The same thing can be said of Bulgaria. Both these countries long have been held in the war only through fear inspired by the presence of German troops on their soil. They are likely to slip from under Hitler's domination as soon as he is forced to relax his military grip on their throats.

The Russians appear to be driving to block the Carpathian Passes on the right wing of their advance, and to be making their main thrust towards Iassy, an important railway junction on the route towards the Danubian delta and the Ploesti oil fields. If the Germans and Rumanians intend to make a fight of it, their resistance will be shown almost immediately.

Destroying Odessa

One of the great dramas of the war is unfolding in the Odessa area of the southern Ukraine. The on-rushing Reds are almost within sight of that important Black Sea port. Meantime the Axis forces are reported to be carrying out demolitions in Odessa which incidentally was one of the handsomest cities in all Russia. This means the Nazis are preparing for evacuation. However, it doesn't necessarily signify that they won't defend the town stubbornly. An undetermined number of Axis troops—perhaps as many as 200,000—are in danger of being cut off in the Odessa zone, and they won't submit easily.

While all this is going on at the southern end of the Russian front, another event of vast importance is reported from the extreme north. Finland is said in Stockholm to be considering an offer of milder peace terms from Russia. Unofficial dispatches say Moscow is offering to let the Finns keep the Hangoe peninsula and the city of Viborg—a matter of moment to Helsinki. Withdrawal of Finland from the war at this crucial juncture would be a boon to the Allies.

Severe Strain

This is one of the tense moments of the war, as we hang on the unfolding of the great Russian onslaught, and await the coming of the Allied invasion of western Europe. Fuehrer Hitler and his people must be enduring a strain comparable with that under which the Allies labored during the awful hours of Dunkerque.

We see a measure of the Hitlerian tension in the feverish preparations of the Nazis to meet the gathering storm in the west, while fighting for their very lives in the east. The widespread flooding of Holland in itself speaks loudly of nerves. The Germans wouldn't have gone to this extreme unless they thought the final test of strength was close.

There's one thing we should bear in mind in assaying the position. It's possible the Nazis may get a breathing spell on the Russian front, due to the spring mud. We can't tell yet, for this has been an exceptional season, but it certainly seems possible that the Red drives may be vastly slowed down shortly for a month or so.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Warren and daughters, Marie, Cindy and Joan and son, Dickie, Mrs. Albert Kuhn and daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Taylor and daughter, Joann, and sons, Ronnie and Grayson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Beamer and daughter, Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagaman and sons, Garry and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Showers and daughter, Nancy, and sons, James and Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Taylor and daughters, Barbara, Judith and Patricia, and son, Garnet, Mrs. Clyde Baker and sons, Donald, Marvin, Leon and Terry, Margie, Jean and Ruby Warren, Clayton Warren, Jr., and Fred Warren.

High Court Rules Negro Vote In Texas

Washington, April 3 (AP)—The supreme court ruled today that negroes have the right to vote in a Texas Democratic primary to nominate candidates for Congress.

Justice Reed delivered the 8-1 decision, which was of far-reaching importance in those southern states where the choice at a primary is usually equivalent to election.

Justice Roberts dissented. The majority opinion states that "the right to vote in such a primary for the nomination of candidates without discrimination by the state, like the right to vote in a general election, is a right secured by the Constitution."

"By the terms of the 15th Amendment that right may not be abridged by any state on account of race. Under our Constitution, the great privilege of choosing his rulers may not be denied a man by the state because of his color."

HOSPITAL REPORT

Mrs. Jesse Marshall, Thurmont; Mrs. Clifford Settle, Biglerville, in the ambulance; Mrs. Maurice Michael, Thurmont; Mrs. George J. Miller, Gettysburg R. 4; Mrs. John Heiser, Gettysburg R. 2, and Mrs. Zell Thomas, Biglerville, have been admitted as patients to the Warner hospital. Those discharged were Mrs. James Neely and infant son, Harry James, Fairfield; Mrs. Kenneth McClell, Gettysburg R. 1; John Wilson, Aspers R. 1, and Mrs. Henry Willet, Littlestown.

Thompson Wealth Puzzling Mystery

Chicago, April 3 (AP)—The mystery of where William Hale Thompson—"Big Bill the Bulldozer" who served three terms as Chicago mayor—got that $1,446,250 currency hoard found in two safety deposit boxes after his death remained unsolved today. And two more boxes await investigation later in the week.

Thompson's attorney, James W. Breen, said he believed there was more money to be found, possibly $1,000,000, and suggested that Thompson, before the 1929 crash, had converted his stock holdings into cash to put away against the hypothetical rainy day. Breen asserted Thompson then sold nearly $2,000,000 worth of Middle West Utilities stock—the Insull firm—and stowed the money away. When he died three weeks ago, his estate was valued at only about $150,000, and no will has been found yet.

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Co-operative relationship between county war boards of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Selective Service will continue under the new system of determining military deferment of farm workers, state War Board Chairman Clyde A. Zehner announced today.

Prayer for Easter

*Hardest of all, dear Lord, to bear
Is that my boy on some far shore
Should wounded lie, and I not there—
(Always I was there before.)*

*That someone else now takes my place,
Bends in pity, swift to do
All he needs. Oh, by Thy grace,
Let him feel my presence, too!*

MOTHERS of America, you can make him feel your presence in a very real way. You can help supply the very medicines that may save his life! One tablespoon of used fat alone makes enough sulfadiazine ointment to treat 35 wounded men!

So save every precious drop of used fats (in any kind of tin can, not glass). When can is full, take it to your butcher; he will give you 2 free red points and 4¢ for every pound. Start today!

DUKES DEFEAT HAZLETON HI TO TAKE TITLE

Philadelphia, April 3 (AP)—Pennsylvania may choose two high school basketball championship teams next year.

Soon after the Little Dukes of Duquesne won the 1944 title with a 43-35 victory over Hazleton in Convention hall, the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association announced it would study the possibility of sponsoring tournaments for both Class A and Class B schools.

The association, at its spring meeting, named a committee to study the plan and report at a later session. A similar study was considered two years ago but the proposal did not materialize.

A swift and sure passing attack won Duquesne the 1944 crown and moved the championship back to the western steel district for the first time since 1939, when Homestead defeated Lower Merion 29-24 in Penn's Palestra.

Hazleton was crippled by the loss of Carl (Red) Meinhold, high scoring center, who was injured in a semi-final game against Lower Merion. Meinhold watched the Saturday night game from the bench. Johnny Kashlak, Duke forward, got his team off to a running start by scoring four points in the opening seconds. He and Bob Tedesky then pooled their talents to form a scoring combination that kept the Mountaineers baffled.

AIRBORNE PRO GRID LEAGUE DEVELOPING

Pittsburgh, April 3 (AP)—An airborne transcontinental professional football league drew another step closer to materialization when representatives from eight cities met here yesterday and elected temporary officers to administer affairs until a permanent organization is effected.

The loop, as yet unnamed, plans a December meeting when further discussions for postwar operation would be held among representatives from New York, Seattle, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington.

All received certificates of participation, although Baltimore and Washington spokesmen did not attend the session. They confirmed by telephone their desire to be included in the setup.

Major League Ball

Roland D. Payne, of Pittsburgh, was elected temporary chairman of the new league. "The class of football will be major league," Payne said, in announcing that play will not begin until manpower conditions permit organization of teams after the war.

Representatives at the meeting included Charles A. Burns, Akron, Ohio; Andrew W. Vismansky, Pittsburgh; representing Carl D. Smith, Pittsburgh; John J. Ahlin, Philadelphia; Frank M. Strock, New York City, representing William D. Cox, former president of the Phillies baseball club and New York and Seattle lumberman who plans to organize teams in both cities; John P. Ludgate, Cincinnati, representing Han Pennington, Cincinnati, and Edward L. Gaertner, St. Louis, representing J. W. E. Yates, St. Louis.

Payne said the two representatives who joined the league by telephone were Lt. Harry L. Harris, Washington, now in the U. S. Coast Guard, and Jacob W. Slagle, Baltimore.

Birdshot In "Blanks" Wounds Cast Member

Reading, Pa., April 3 (AP)—The minstrel show script called for two actors to "fire" revolvers into the faces of other characters.

The principals fired point blank during a rehearsal in the Rejeh theater yesterday morning and five persons were taken to Community General hospital.

The revolvers were loaded with birdshot instead of blanks. No one could explain why.

None was seriously hurt, although as many as a dozen pellets were taken from the faces of the victims—William Sebest, 40, end man; Bernard Upczak, 39, end man; George Fieschmann, 32, interloctor; George D. Barbey, 58, sound technician, and George Gillingham, lone front row spectator.

Newfoundlanders Will Aid On Farms

St. John's, Nfld., April 3 (AP)—About 1,500 Newfoundlanders will be recruited for work on Pennsylvania and New York dairy farms.

Newfoundland's commission government approved a U. S. War Food Administration plan to recruit the workers beginning next week but ruled that essential Newfoundland industry may not be impaired.

The WFA will pay their transportation. Recruits will be chosen from among single men and childless couples. They will be paid $100 to $115 a month, and will study dairy farming methods at state agricultural colleges in New York or Pennsylvania for two or three weeks before receiving job assignments.

Griffith Looking South For Talent

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Baseball, says Clark Griffith, should go south, way south, to look for talent in the war-time manpower emergency.

The 74-year-old owner of the Washington Senators, who thinks he has a 1944 pennant winner, has about a dozen Cubans, several Puerto Ricans, three Venezuelans and a couple of Mexicans on a squad that many experts have picked as tops in the American league.

"For fielding, players don't come any better anywhere than from Cuba and South America," he says. "If we can show them a few pointers about hitting, they'll be tough to beat."

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 3 (AP)—This is supposed to be hush-hush stuff; nobody will confirm it officially and nobody wants his name used. . . .

If it turns out all wrong, you can blame it on the way GI rumors travel, but it comes in confidence from widely divergent "good sources." . . . The story is merely that the Army Air Forces are planning some big-time football next fall. . . . Apparently the plan is to have one big team from each air force in the United States. . . .

Reports say the bigwigs already have begun to line up player prospects, but there's no indication of what sort of schedules they'll play. . . . Anyway, if this goes through, you'll be hearing about something besides Great Lakes and the Iowa Seahawks next fall, regardless of what happens to college football.

CONTRADICTORY

The new "home" owners of the Sacramento Pacific Coast League club gave a $25 war bond as a prize for naming the park "Double-Field"—what a name for a place where they'll be playing virtually nothing but night games.

MONDAY MATINEE

The Argonne varsity football coach at the University of Havana, will observe Notre Dame's spring drills in hopes of learning something about the "T" formation. . . . The late E. C. "Billy" Hayes, who developed some great distance runners at Indiana university, predicted in his last interview that it will be either a Swede or a Finn who will eventually run the elusive four-minute mile. . . . West coast fight fans are high on Lightweight John Thomas and Matchmaker Babe McCoy is trying to pair him with Lulu Costantino for a scrap next month. . . . John Lawther, Penn State, describes those super-tall basketballers as so tall "they have to climb a ladder to shave themselves."

SERVICE DEPT.

Navy Lieut. Bruce Barnes, former pro tennis star, has joined the physical training department at the Pensacola, Fla., Naval Air Station. . . . The Cherry Point, N. C., Marines, who'll play a tough service baseball schedule, will depend mostly on former college and high school stars, but their 19-year-old first baseman, Cpl. Pete Rafferty, is rated a standout big-league prospect.

GOP SEEKING "FARM PLANK" FROM FARMERS

Chicago, April 3 (AP)—The Republican party began a pre-convention search today for a farm plank which its leaders hope will help win farmers' support for its ticket at the fall election and later provide the basis for governmental policies encouraging abundant production.

The GOP opened its inquiry by asking leaders of six national farm organizations—all holding different shades of opinion—to recommend a post war farm program before a two-day conference of a party agriculture advisory committee. Four members of Congress and five governors compose the group.

Gov. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, chairman, said the recommendations would be used in drafting a farm plank to be submitted to the Republican national convention in June.

Several farm organization leaders expressed the concern lest the open conference serve to magnify differences among the organizations on farm program details and thereby give an impression that organized agriculture does not know what it wants.

Encouraged by midwestern farm belt victories in the 1942 Congressional elections and in subsequent special elections, Chairman Harrison E. Spangler of the national committee said the party was anxious to find out just what kind of a post war program farmers want.

DESPITE LOSSES YANKS WILL BE IN TITLE RACE

By TED MEIER

New York, April 3 (AP)—Don't count the New York Yankees out of the running for the American league pennant—not yet, anyway.

When the world champions lost such stars as Charley Keller, Spud Chandler, Bill Dickey, Johnny Murphy, Marius Russo, Joe Gordon, Rolfe Hemsley, Frankie Crosetti and Bill Johnson to the armed services a lot of wishful thinkers thought the crippled Yanks couldn't possibly win their fourth straight pennant and 8th in nine years.

The season hasn't started yet and, who knows, maybe the Yankees will finish in the second division for the first time since 1925 when they won 69 and lost 85 for .448 percentage.

The events of the week-end when the Yanks beat the Brooklyn Dodgers and Phillies at Atlantic City, N. J., indicate that Manager Joe McCarthy may fashion another of his managerial "miracles."

For one thing the Yanks are still polling that long ball, a homer, double or triple that can bust up a game at any minute. The Dodgers and the Phils both outlived the champs, but the final scores read: Yanks 5, Phils 4, and Yanks 4, Dodgers 3 in 11 innings.

Long Blows Count

Against the Phils, Johnny Lindell's two-run homer and George Steinbrenner's two-run triple were the telling blows. Against Brooklyn Steinbrenner socked a homer while Don Savage started the winning rally in the 11th with a three-bagger. After Savage's triple, Rookie Catcher Mike Barbrak, filling the famous shoes of Dickey, promptly blasted a single to win the game.

After the game Rookie southpaw Joe Page went home to Springdale, Pa., where his sister was seriously injured in an automobile accident.

News from other major league camps:

New York Giants—Cliff Melton named to pitch against Red Sox on Wednesday. Team will concentrate on batting practice today and tomorrow.

Cincinnati Reds—Pitching prospect uncovered in Lefty Carter who held Indians to one run and seven hits in five innings yesterday.

Washington Senators—Team due to acquire another Cuban today with expected arrival of Joe Gomez, a six-foot right hander.

St. Louis Cardinals—National league champs, lucky to beat Fourth Ferrying group yesterday, are due to plenty of hard work this week.

BOCHE'S LAST BATTLESHIP IS BOMBED AGAIN

British Naval planes have scored several bomb hits on the German's most powerful battleship, the 35,000-ton Tirpitz, the Admiralty announced today.

The Tirpitz was skulking in Norway's Alten fjord, the same spot where she was torpedoed by the Royal Navy's midget submarines last September.

The Admiralty's announcement of multiple hits indicated a heavy attack on the biggest surviving unit of Hitler's all but vanquished fleet. The attack presumably was carried out by carrier-based planes of the fleet air arm, possibly American-built.

Last previous reports on the Tirpitz said the Germans had been able to make only temporary repairs to the torpedo damage inflicted by the British midget submarines which stole into her hideaway last fall. The torpedo-carrying midgets, three of which were lost, were credited with causing underwater damage to the Tirpitz.

The brief Admiralty communiqué did not give the date or other details of the plane attack.

The Tirpitz was the one great capital ship remaining in the German Navy after the sinking of the 26,000-ton Scharnhorst last December.

While listed officially at 35,000 tons, the battleship is believed to be much heavier, perhaps 45,000. Jane's fighting ships says the actual figure may be about 41,000 tons. She is 791 feet long, has a normal complement of 1,500 men and carries eight 15-inch guns, twelve 5.9 inch guns, and sixteen 4.1 inch guns.

But the Tirpitz has seen little action, with its main value to the Germans lying in its grave potential threat to Allied supply lines and to Allied naval craft.

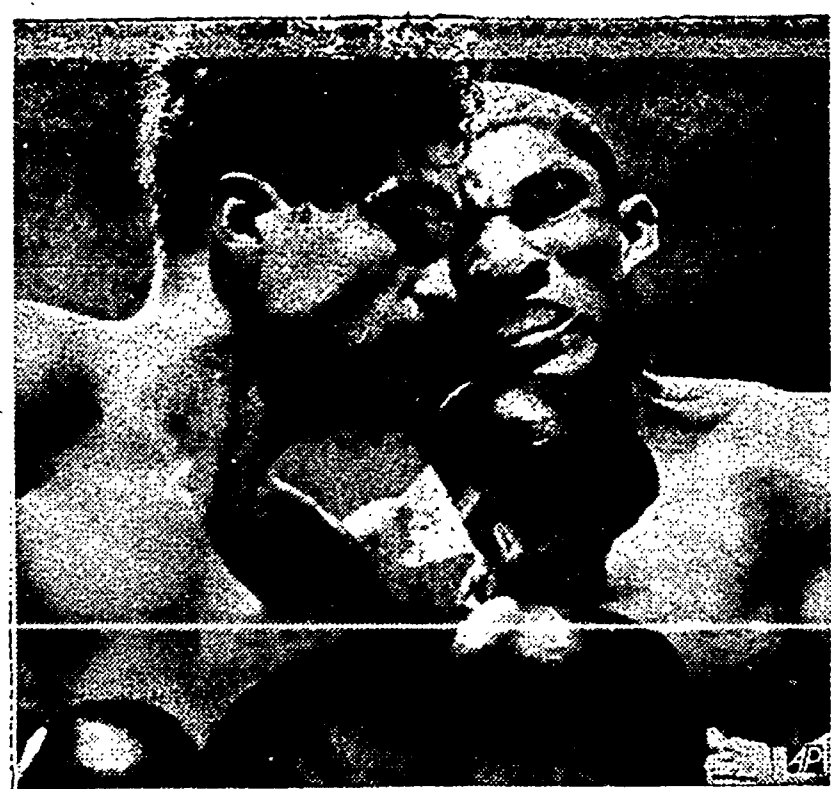

Admiral Sir William James, chief of British Naval information, last fall wrote both the Tirpitz and the 26,000-ton Gneisenau, sister-ship of the Scharnhorst, off the active list for months to come. The Gneisenau was so badly hit by RAF bombs in July that she was reported to have been transformed into a training ship for German Marines.

Only recently an informant with good underground connections reported the Germans had tried to send their biggest repair ship to Alten fjord to help get the Tirpitz seaworthy for an attempted dash home, but the vessel was badly damaged in a storm and had to hole up herself for repairs.

GOLF STARS END SEASON CIRCUIT

Knoxville, Tenn., April 3 (AP)—Harold (Jug) McSpaden and Byron Nelson, who battled side by side in golf's winter swing, headed for their home courses today with $23,900 in war bonds for their efforts.

McSpaden, the Philadelphian who won the San Francisco Open, the Phoenix, the Hope-Crosby tournament and the Gulf Mississippi Open, led with $13,500 in war bonds, while Nelson, the 31-year-old iron master from Toledo, Ohio, pocketed $10,400 in bonds.

Clipping seven strokes off par figures in the final 36 holes, Nelson nosed out his rival, McSpaden, by a stroke and won Knoxville's First Open tournament yesterday with a 72-hole 270.

Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Indiana, finished in a third place 274 tie with Tony Penna of Dayton, Ohio. Each got $666.

Craig Wood, of Mamaroneck, New York, Duration National Open champion, won $500 fifth place money with a 275, while Johnny Bulla, of Atlanta, with 278 was a stroke ahead of Jimmy Hines, Amsterdam, New York, and Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Illinois.

McSherrystown Man Gets Purple Heart

Wounded in Italy, Bernard E. McMaster, quartermaster third class, U. S. Navy, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. McMaster, 535 North street, McSherrystown, has been awarded the Purple Heart medal.

Bluejacket McMaster suffered shrapnel wounds of the lower part of the back when a bomb landed on or near the LCT (landing craft tanks) boat on which he was serving at the Anzio beachhead in Italy.

The McSherrystown sailor was confined to an Army hospital in Italy for five weeks. He is now on temporary messenger duty in Italy.

BRAVES COACH HOPING TO GET RUNNING START

By JACK HAND

Wallingford, Conn., April 3 (AP)—Taking over a sixth-place ball club in this year of player shortage with only a one-year contract to fall back on doesn't worry Boss Bob Coleman of the Boston Braves.

He's been playing ball since 1910 and this is the end of the rainbow—a big league manager's job.

"We are in fine physical condition and hope to get off to a running start," said Bob Bob as his squad finished another day of work in the Choate school cage adjoining the practice field.

"I don't want to say whether we're a first division club as I don't know what the other fellows have lost. St. Louis probably is the team to beat. Chicago and Pittsburgh look strong, too."

Used To Youngsters

Coleman's ability to work with youngsters to draw out potentialities were his best references for the job. Farm system work for the Red Sox, Detroit and Braves provided the background.

The big show is nothing new to Coleman, who caught for Pittsburgh in 1913-14 and coached under Casey Stengel last year. He is going to go along on the same theory of managing that he used in the minors.

"The only difference up here is you are dealing with more mature players," observed Bob. "It isn't so easy to point out faults to a fellow who has been around for three or four years, but lots of them still have plenty of flaws."

Coleman has been associated with Braves' president Bob Quinn for more than 25 years, at one time in Scranton, Pa.

Henry Picard To Try Golf Comeback

Harrisburg, Pa., April 3 (AP)—Henry Picard, winner of the 1939 Professional Golfers Association championship, is planning a tournament comeback after having been out of major competition since 1941.

"I can play with the boys who are playing in tournaments now and I think I can beat most of them," he said. "I may be a little rusty but one or two tournaments will fix me up."

Picard is pro at Harrisburg Country club.

ALLIES POUND ENEMY TARGETS IN 2 COUNTRIES

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

London, April 3 (AP)—Violent air battles between American and German planes were reported over Hungary for the first time today by the Berlin radio which said alerts had sounded in Budapest and other areas.

First fragmentary reports from the enemy said 14 United States planes were downed over the Hungarian capital, only recently occupied by the Germans. The Nazi DNB agency said "American escorted bombers" had been engaged over Hungary by German destroyer and fighter formations.

Earlier the Frankfurt and Calais radios went silent and the Nazis said "single enemy planes were flying over central and northwest Germany."

Bomb Budapest

Bombs were dropped on some sections of Budapest, the German broadcast added.

This would be the first American or British assault on Budapest, although the capital has been struck before by Russian bombers. The Soviets first attacked Budapest September 4, 1942.

Presumably the bombers came from Italy, delivering a second potent punch after Sunday's assaults by United States heavy bombers at aircraft and ball bearing works at Steyr in Austria.

British-based planes were inactive over the week-end except for RAF Mosquito blows Saturday night against Hannover, Krefeld and Aachen.

The Steyr ballbearing factory is one of the most important plants of its type still in production and the Germans loosed an intense anti-aircraft barrage and sent up swarms of fighters in attempts to intercept the American raiders, flying from bases in Italy.

Down 100 Nazi Planes

Allied headquarters in Naples announced today that more than 100 enemy planes were reported destroyed in widespread aerial operations yesterday, which included the Steyr attack and raids in Italy and Yugoslavia. Thirty-three Allied planes were listed as missing from nearly 2,200 sorties.

The Berlin radio asserted that 51 American planes, including 41 four-engine bombers, were shot down. It declared that some others were destroyed by German and Italian fighters who "ambushed" them on their return.

While Steyr, 90 miles from Vienna, was being pounded, other Fortresses and Liberators struck across the Adriatic to blast the communications centers of Brod on the Belgrade-Zagreb line in Yugoslavia; Mostar, 50 miles southeast of Split, and the Bihać rail yards, 50 miles north of Zara.

Reminder Assaults

The Mosquito stabs from Britain Saturday night were in the category of "reminder" assaults on German industrial centers, which recently have shown new signs of activity.

The Swiss government, meanwhile, made diplomatic representations over the accidental bombing Saturday of Schaffhausen—Swiss northern frontier town which is

WRITE-IN VOTES FOR DEMOCRATS

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—The Democratic state organization today announced plans to nominate by write-in votes candidates for 28 ballot places for which no aspirants filed.

The party failed to enter candidates for one seat in Congress, four in the state Senate and 22 in the state House of Representatives.

After conferences with county chairmen, state committee Secretary J. Warren Mickle said "all of the places will be filled" at the April 25 primary.

John W. Mann of Juniata county was slated to file for the 17th District Congressional nomination but failed to get in his papers and will be backed in a write-in campaign, Mickle said.

Incumbent Richard M. Simpson of Huntingdon is unopposed for the Republican nomination. The district includes Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry, Snyder, Bedford and Union counties.

Senate districts in which no Democratic candidates filed are Lancaster, Chester, McKean-Potter-Tioga and Erie counties.

State House candidates will be decided by write-in votes in Butler's two districts, Cambria first district, Cameron, Centre, Crawford, Elk, Erie fourth district, Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson, Juniata, Lehigh second, McKean, Schuylkill third, Snyder, Tioga, Union, Venango's two, Warren and Wyoming counties.

bounded on three-sides by German territory.

The Swiss radio said that the death toll stood at 35 and that 55 persons were injured by the bombs dropped by a small portion of a Liberators force which United States headquarters said encountered "difficulties of navigation in bad weather."

Vermont was once claimed by both New York and New Hampshire.

DUKES DEFEAT HAZLETON HI TO TAKE TITLE

Philadelphia, April 3 (AP)—Pennsylvania may choose two high school basketball championship teams next year.

Soon after the Little Dukes of Duquesne won the 1944 title with a 43-35 victory over Hazleton in Convention hall, the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association announced it would study the possibility of sponsoring tournaments for both Class A and Class B schools.

The association, at its spring meeting, named a committee to study the plan and report at a later session. A similar study was considered two years ago but the proposal did not materialize.

A swift and sure passing attack won Duquesne the 1944 crown and moved the championship back to the western steel district for the first time since 1939, when Homestead defeated Lower Merion 29-24 in Penn's Palestra.

Hazleton was crippled by the loss of Carl (Red) Meinhold, high scoring center, who was injured in a semi-final game against Lower Merion. Meinhold watched the Saturday night game from the bench. Johnny Kashlak, Duke forward, got his team off to a running start by scoring four points in the opening seconds. He and Bob Tedesky then pooled their talents to form a scoring combination that kept the Mountaineers baffled.

AIRBORNE PRO GRID LEAGUE DEVELOPING

Pittsburgh, April 3 (AP)—An airborne transcontinental professional football league drew another step closer to materialization when representatives from eight cities met here yesterday and elected temporary officers to administrate affairs until a permanent organization is effected.

The loop, as yet unnamed, plans a December meeting when further discussions for postwar operation would be held among representatives from New York, Seattle, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington.

All received certificates of participation, although Baltimore and Washington spokesmen did not attend the session. They confirmed by telephone their desire to be included in the setup.

Major League Ball
R. and D. Payne, of Pittsburgh, was elected temporary chairman of the new league. "The class of football will be major league," Payne said, in announcing that play will not begin until manpower conditions permit organization of teams after this war.

Representatives at the meeting included Charles A. Burns, Akron, Ohio; Andrew W. Vismansky, Pittsburgh; representing Carl D. Smith, Pittsburgh; John J. Ahlin, Philadelphia; Frank M. Strock, New York City; representing William D. Cox, former president of the Phillies baseball club and New York and Seattle lumberman who plans to organize teams in both cities; John P. Ludgate, Cincinnati; representing Han Pennington, Cincinnati; and Edward L. Gaertner, St. Louis, representing J. W. E. Yates, St. Louis.

Payne said the two representatives who joined the league by telephone were Lt. Harry L. Harris, Washington, now in the U. S. Coast Guard, and Jacob W. Slagle, Baltimore.

Birdshot In "Blanks" Wounds Cast Member

Reading, Pa., April 3 (AP)—The minstrel show script called for two actors to "fire" revolvers into the faces of other characters.

The principals fired point blank during a rehearsal in the Rehoboth theater yesterday morning—and five persons were taken to Community General hospital.

The revolvers were loaded with birdshot instead of blanks. No one could explain why.

None was seriously hurt, although as many as a dozen pellets were taken from the faces of the victims—William Sebest, 40, end man; Bernard Upszak, 39, end man; George Feschmann, 32, interlocutor; George D. Barby, 58, sound technician, and George Gillingham, lone front row spectator.

Newfoundlanders Will Aid On Farms

St. John's, Nfld., April 3 (AP)—About 1,500 Newfoundlanders will be recruited for work on Pennsylvania and New York dairy farms.

Newfoundland's commission government approved a U. S. War Food Administration plan to recruit the workers beginning next week but ruled that essential Newfoundland industry may not be impaired.

The WFA will pay their transportation. Recruits will be chosen from among single men and childless couples. They will be paid $100 to $115 a month, and will study dairy farming methods at state agricultural colleges in New York or Pennsylvania for two or three weeks before receiving job assignments.

Griffith Looking South For Talent

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Baseball, says Clark Griffith, should go south, way south, to look for talent in the war-time manpower emergency.

The 74-year-old owner of the Washington Senators, who thinks he has a 1944 pennant winner, has about a dozen Cubans, several Puerto Ricans, three Venezuelans and a couple of Mexicans on a squad that many experts have picked as tops in the American league.

"For fielding, players don't come any better anywhere than from Cuba and South America," he says. "If we can show them a few pointers about hitting, they'll be tough to beat."

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, April 3 (AP)—This is supposed to be hush-hush stuff; nobody will confirm it officially and nobody wants his name used. . . .

If it turns out all wrong, you can blame it on the way GI rumors travel, but it comes in confidence from widely divergent "good sources." . . . The story is merely that the Army Air Forces are planning some big-time football next fall. . . . Apparently the plan is to have one big team from each air force in the United States. . . . Reports say the bigwigs already have begun to line up player prospects, but there's no indication of what sort of schedules they'll play. . . . Anyway, if this goes through, you'll be hearing about something besides Great Lakes and the Iowa Seagulls next fall, regardless of what happens to college football.

CONTRADICTORY

The new "home" owners of the Sacramento Pacific Coast League ball club gave a $25 war bond as a prize for naming the park "Double-day Field"—what a name for a place where they'll be playing virtually nothing but night games.

MONDAY MATINEE

Tino Argimon, varsity football coach at the University of Havana, will observe Notre Dame's spring drills in hopes of learning something about the "T" formation. . . . The late E. C. "Billy" Hayes, who developed some great distance runners at Indiana university, predicted in his last interview that it will be either a Swede or a Finn who will eventually run the elusive four-minute mile. . . . West coast fight fans are high on Lightweight John Thomas and Matchmaker Babe McCoy is trying to pair him with Lulu Constantino for a scrap next month. . . . John Lawther, Penn State, describes those super-tall basketballers as so tall "they have to climb a ladder to shave themselves."

SERVICE DEPT.

Navy Lieut. Bruce Barnes, former pro tennis star, has joined the physical training department at the Pensacola, Fla., Naval Air Station. . . . The Cherry Point, N. C., Marines, who'll play a tough service baseball schedule, will depend mostly on former college and high school stars, but their 19-year-old first baseman, Cpl. Pete Rafferty, is rated a standout big-league prospect.

GOP SEEKING "FARM PLANK" FROM FARMERS

Chicago, April 3 (AP)—The Republican party began a pre-convention search today for a farm plank which its leaders hope will help win farmers' support for its ticket at the fall election and later provide the basis for governmental policies encouraging abundant production.

The GOP opened its inquiry by asking leaders of six national farm organizations—all holding different shades of opinion—to recommend a post war farm program before a two-day conference of a party agriculture advisory committee. Four members of Congress and five governors compose the group.

Gov. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, chairman, said the recommendations would be used in drafting a farm plank to be submitted to the Republican national convention in June.

Several farm organization leaders expressed the concern lest the open conference serve to magnify differences among the organizations on farm program details and thereby give an impression that organized agriculture does not know what it wants.

Encouraged by midwestern farm belt victories in the 1942 Congressional elections and in subsequent special elections, Chairman Harrison E. Spangler of the national committee said the party was anxious to find out just what kind of a post war program farmers want.

An acre of land used to produce corn on the average provides food for a person for 635 days; if the corn is fed to hogs, it provides food in the form of pork for only 125 days.

DESPITE LOSSES YANKS WILL BE IN TITLE RACE

By TED MEIER

New York, April 3 (AP)—Don't count the New York Yankees out of the running for the American league pennant—not yet, anyway.

When the world champions lost such stars as Charley Keller, Spud Chandler, Bill Dickey, Johnny Murphy, Marius Russo, Joe Gordon, Rolfe Hemsley, Frankie Crosetti and Bill Johnson to the armed services a lot of wishful thinkers thought the crippled Yanks couldn't possibly win their fourth straight pennant and 8th in nine years.

The season hasn't started yet and, who knows, maybe the Yankees will finish in the second division for the first time since 1925 when they won 69 and lost 85 for 448 percentage. The events of the week-end when the Yanks beat the Brooklyn Dodgers and Phillies at Atlantic City, N. J., indicate that Manager Joe McCarthy may fashion another of his managerial "miracles."

For one thing the Yanks are still piling that long ball, a homer, double or triple that can bust up a game at any minute. The Dodgers and the Phils both outthit the champs, but the final scores read: Yanks 5, Phils 4, and Yanks 4, Dodgers 3 in 11 innings.

Long Blows Count
Against the Phils, Johnny Lindell's two-run homer and George Stinewiss's two-run triple were the telling blows. Against Brooklyn Stinewiss socked a homer while Don Savage started the winning rally in the 11th with a three-bagger. After Savage's triple, Rookie Catcher Mike Barbra, filling the famous shoes of Dickey, promptly blasted a single to win the game.

After the game Rookie southpaw Joe Page went home to Springdale, Pa., where his sister was seriously injured in an automobile accident.

News from other major league camps:

New York Giants—Cliff Melton named to pitch against Red Sox on Wednesday. Team will concentrate on batting practice today and tomorrow.

Cincinnati Reds—Pitching prospect uncovered in Lefty Carter who held Indians to one run and seven hits in five innings yesterday.

Washington Senators—Team due to acquire another Cuban today with expected arrival of Joe Gomez, a six-foot right hander.

St. Louis Cardinals—National league champs, lucky to beat Fourth Ferring group yesterday, are due to plenty of hard work this week.

Baggy Buries Hatchet
Cleveland Indians—Pitcher Jim Bagby, who wanted to be traded, buried hatchet with Lou Boudreau upon joining Merchant Marine.

Wrote sports writer he wished club best of luck and predicted Alie Reynolds would be 20-game winner.

Philadelphia's A's manager Connie Mack pleased with team in all departments except hitting. "Best hitter we have is veteran Al Simmons."

Boston Red Sox—Vic Johnson, Yank Terry and Joe Wood, Jr., listed to pitch against Navy at Annapolis today.

Philadelphia Phils—Pitcher Roger McKee called home to Shelby, North Carolina by mother's serious illness. Catcher Bill Anske cut his hand while changing a tire. Five stitches were needed to sew up wound.

St. Louis Browns—Manager Luke Sewell, disregarding cold weather, scheduled another game with Toledo today. Mudhens walloped the Browns yesterday, 12-4.

Cubs Impressive
Chicago Cubs—Rookies Tony Roy and Roy Easterwood each got three hits against Tigers yesterday while Paul Derringer hurled scoreless three innings.

Boston Braves—Stew Hofferth, only player missing from camp, wrote he shortly expected to learn definitely regarding his draft classification and would report at once if deferred.

Chicago White Sox—Johnny Humphries and Ed Lopat each twirled a scoreless three innings against Pirates Sunday.

Detroit Tigers—Charles Metro filling in at third until Pinky Higgins, last of camp arrivals, is ready.

Allies Halt Jap Assault In India

New Delhi, April 3 (AP)—Allied troops, battling in defense of the important Indian communications center of Imphal, have driven off a Japanese column attempting to reach the highway leading southward to Tiddim. Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's headquarters announced today.

At the same time, the bulletin said, Allied forces inflicted casualties on other Japanese units attempting to advance on Imphal from the east.

The enemy continued, however, to shell the Tamu-Palee road near the India-Burma frontier, the communiqué added.

The situation on the Arakan front in southwestern Burma was reported quiet.

GOLF STARS END SEASON CIRCUIT

Knoxville, Tenn., April 3 (AP)—Harold (Jug) McSpaden and Byron Nelson, who battled side by side in golf's winter swing, headed for their home courses today with $23,900 in war bonds for their efforts.

McSpaden, the Philadelphiaian who won the San Francisco Open, the Phoenix, the Hope-Crosby tournament and the Gulf Mississippi Open, led with $13,500 in war bonds, while Nelson, the 31-year-old iron master from Toledo, Ohio, pocketed $10,400 in bonds.

Clipping seven strokes off par figures in the final 36 holes, Nelson nosed out his rival, McSpaden, by a stroke and won Knoxville's First Open tournament yesterday with a 72-hole 270.

Bob Hamilton of Evansville, Indiana, finished in a third place 274 tie with Tony Penna of Dayton, Ohio. Each got $666.

Craig Wood, of Manassas, New York, Duration National Open champion, won $500, fifth place money with a 275, while Johnny Bulla, of Atlanta, with 278 was a stroke ahead of Jimmy Hines, Amsterdam, New York, and Johnny Revelto of Evanston, Illinois.

BOCHE'S LAST BATTLESHIP IS BOMBED AGAIN

British Naval planes have scored several bomb hits on the German's most powerful battleship, the 35,000-ton Tirpitz, the Admiralty announced today.

The Tirpitz was skulking in Norway's Allen fjord, the same spot where she was torpedoed by the Royal Navy's midget submarines last September.

The Admiralty's announcement of multiple hits indicated a heavy attack on the biggest surviving unit of Hitler's all but vanquished fleet. The attack presumably was carried out by carrier-based planes of the fleet air arm, possibly American-built.

Last previous reports on the Tirpitz said the Germans had been able to make only temporary repairs to the torpedo damage inflicted by the British midget submarines which stole into her hideaway last fall. The torpedo-carrying midgets, three of which were lost, were credited with causing underwater damage to the Tirpitz.

The brief Admiralty communiqué did not give the date or other details of the plane attack.

The Tirpitz was the one great capital ship remaining in the German Navy after the sinking of the 26,000-ton Scharnhorst last December.

While listed officially at 35,000 tons, the battleship is believed to be much heavier, perhaps 45,000. Jane's fighting ships says the actual figure may be about 41,000 tons. She is 791 feet long, has a normal complement of 1,500 men and carries eight 15-inch guns, twelve 5.9 inch guns, and sixteen 4.1 inch guns.

But the Tirpitz has seen little action, with its main value to the Germans lying in its grave potential threat to Allied supply lines and to Allied naval craft. Admiral Sir William James, chief of British Naval Information, last fall wrote both the Tirpitz and the 26,000-ton Gneisenau, sister-ship of the Scharnhorst, off the active list for months to come. The Gneisenau was so badly hit by RAF bombs in July that she was reported to have been transformed into a training ship for German Marines.

Only recently an informant with good underground connections reported the Germans had tried to send their biggest repair ship to Alten fjord to help get the Tirpitz seaworthy for an attempted dash home, but the vessel was badly damaged in a storm and had to hole up herself for repairs.

Citizenship was extended to all Indians in the United States by act of Congress in 1924.

McSherrystown Man Gets Purple Heart

Wounded in Italy, Bernard E. McMaster, quartermaster third class, U. S. Navy, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. McMaster, 535 North street, McSherrystown, has been awarded the Purple Heart medal.

Bluejacket McMaster suffered shrapnel wounds of the lower part of the back when a bomb landed on or near the LCT (landing craft tanks) boat on which he was serving at the Anzio beachhead in Italy.

The McSherrystown sailor was confined to an Army hospital in Italy for five weeks. He is now on temporary messenger duty in Italy.

BRAVES COACH HOPING TO GET RUNNING START

By JACK HAND

Wallingford, Conn., April 3 (AP)—Taking over a sixth-place ball club in this year of player shortage with only a one-year contract to fall back on doesn't worry Boss Bob Coleman of the Boston Braves. He's been playing ball since 1910 and this is the end of the rainbow—a big league manager's job.

"We are in fine physical condition and hope to get off to a running start," said Bob Bob as his squad finished another day of work in the Choate school cage adjoining the practice field.

"I don't want to say whether we're a first division club as I don't know what the other fellows have lost. St. Louis probably is the team to beat. Chicago and Pittsburgh look strong, too."

Used To Youngsters

Coleman's ability to work with youngsters to draw out potentialities were his best references for the job. Farm system work for the Red Sox, Detroit and Braves provided the background.

The big show is nothing new to Coleman, who caught for Pittsburgh in 1913-14 and coached under Casey Stengel last year. He is going to go along on the same theory of managing that he used in the minors.

"The only difference up here is you are dealing with more mature players," observed Bob. "It isn't so easy to point out faults to a fellow who has been around for three or four years, but lots of them still have plenty of flaws."

Coleman has been associated with Braves' president Bob Quinn for more than 25 years, at one time in Scranton, Pa.

Henry Picard To Try Golf Comeback

Harrisburg, Pa., April 3 (AP)—Henry Picard, winner of the 1939 Professional Golfers Association championship, is planning a tournament comeback after having been out of major competition since 1941.

"I can play with the boys who are playing in tournaments now and I think I can best most of them," he said. "I may be a little rusty but one or two tournaments will fix me up."

Picard is pro at Harrisburg Country club.

ALLIES POUND ENEMY TARGETS IN 2 COUNTRIES

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

London, April 3 (AP)—Violent air battles between American and German planes were reported over Hungary for the first time today by the Berlin radio which said alerts had sounded in Budapest and other areas.

First fragmentary reports from the enemy said 14 United States planes were downed over the Hungarian capital, only recently occupied by the Germans. The Nazi DNB agency said "American escorted bombers" had been engaged over Hungary by German destroyer and fighter formations.

Earlier the Frankfurt and Calais radios went silent and the Nazis said "single enemy planes were flying over central and northwest Germany."

Bomb Budapest

Bombs were dropped on some sections of Budapest, the German broadcast added.

This would be the first American or British assault on Budapest, although the capital has been struck before by Russian bombers. The Soviets first attacked Budapest September 4, 1942.

Presumably the bombers came from Italy, delivering a second potent punch after Sunday's assaults by United States heavy bombers at aircraft and ball bearing works at Steyr in Austria.

British-based planes were inactive over the week-end except for RAF Mosquito blows Saturday night against Hannover, Krefeld and Aachen.

The Steyr ballbearing factory is one of the most important plants of its type still in production and the Germans loosed an intense anti-aircraft barrage and sent up swarms of fighters in attempts to intercept the American raiders, flying from bases in Italy.

Down 100 Nazi Planes
Allied headquarters in Naples announced today that more than 100 enemy planes were reported destroyed in widespread aerial operations yesterday, which included the Steyr attack and raids in Italy and Yugoslavia. Thirty-three Allied planes were listed as missing from nearly 2,200 sorties.

The Berlin radio asserted that 51 American planes, including 41 four-engine bombers, were shot down. It declared that some others were destroyed by German and Italian fighters who "ambushed" them on their return.

While Steyr, 90 miles from Vienna, was being pounded, other Fortresses and Liberators struck across the Adriatic to blast the communications centers of Brod on the Belgrade-Zagreb line in Yugoslavia; Mostar, 50 miles southeast of Split, and the Bihac rail yards, 50 miles north of Zara.

Reminder Assaults
The Mosquito stabs from Britain Saturday night were in the category of "reminder" assaults on German industrial centers, which recently have shown new signs of activity.

The Swiss government, meanwhile, made diplomatic representations over the accidental bombing Saturday of Schaffhausen—Swiss northern frontier town which is bounded on three sides by German territory.

The Swiss radio said that the death toll stood at 35 and that 55 persons were injured by the bombs dropped by a small portion of a Liberator force which United States headquarters said encountered "difficulties" of navigation in bad weather.

Vermont was once claimed by both New York and New Hampshire.

To Marry American

Jacqueline Leigh-Mallory (above), daughter of Air Chief Marshal Sir Trafford Leigh-Mallory, Allied invasion air commander-in-chief, is engaged to wed Flight Officer W. E. Doherty, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Doherty, of Hammondsport, N. Y., who is stationed in England.

WRITE-IN VOTES FOR DEMOCRATS

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—The Democratic state organization today announced plans to nominate by write-in votes candidates for 28 ballot places for which no aspirants filed.

The party failed to enter candidates for one seat in Congress, four in the state Senate and 22 in the state House of Representatives.

After conferences with county chairmen, state committee Secretary J. Warren Mickle said "all of the places will be filled" at the April 25 primary.

John W. Mann of Juniata county was slated to file for the 17th District Congressional nomination but failed to get in his papers and will be backed in a write-in campaign, Mickle said.

Incumbent Richard M. Simpson of Huntingdon is unopposed for the Republican nomination. The district includes Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Perry, Snyder, Bedford and Union counties.

Senate districts in which no Democratic candidates filed are Lancaster, Chester, McKean-Potter-Tioga and Erie counties.

State House candidates will be decided by write-in votes in Butler's two districts, Cambria first district, Cameron, Centre, Crawford, Elk, Erie fourth district, Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson, Juniata, Lehigh second, McKean, Schuylkill third, Snyder, Tioga, Union, Venango's two, Warren and Wyoming counties.

MAN'S POSSIBILITY
As the doctor on his rounds, You may say: "He's seven pounds And although now very small May some day be six feet tall." But when measurements are made, To the ounce when he is weighed, Noted shade of hair and eyes, Still a mystery he lies, For there's none allowed to see What his influence will be.

In that cradle there may stay One to change the world some day: One to change the world some day: One to come, as one before, From a humble cottage door, To stand firm for what seems best; Be the friend of all oppressed; To be gentle as a child; To be scoffed at and reviled, But, the last shard being hurled, Unto freedom lead the world.

This is mankind's only need; One with faith enough to lead; One, however lowly born, Brave enough to stand to scorn; One to say, when cynics smirk: "I must do my father's work!" One to stand from right unwayed Howsoever friends persuade, And there's none so wise on earth Who can tell a baby's worth.

Today's Talk

VACHEL LINDSAY
The same thing that has bred all wars, this one especially, and which has allowed the great enunciators and poets to die at our very feet, is what killed and stilled the voice of Vachel Lindsay, a poet probably with but one competitor as a John the Baptist singer—and that one America's Walt Whitman.

The fame and acclaim of Whitman have spread over continents, yet Vachel Lindsay's blessed memory remains even now wrapped only in the hearts of those who loved and admired him in life.

I was in Wichita, Kansas, when a reported of the local press came to my hotel and informed me that Vachel Lindsay was dead. It was tragic news. A great soul and a great American, a singer whose voice was of the essence of the very soil he so often wandered over and traduced poems for bread, was no more. It was difficult to understand why so sincere a man should be cut away from the earth that he loved, and so very young.

A few years ago, Edgar Lee Masters, another one of the neglected, wrote a fine and inspiring book about Vachel Lindsay. It had little sale, but it remains a notable work of a great poet, whose fame should not be allowed to die. Wrote Masters: "It is absurd to say that men like Lindsay cannot be cherished, protected, and preserved. There are ways in plenty. They did not condemn him to hemlock, but they coaxed him by failing to protest against his doom, by failing to give him help out of their useless abundance. They could have consulted and decided upon some way to give him bread, and let him do his work for his city and the country, taking from that work what was good and throwing away the rubbish."

Well, Lindsay left little "rubbish" and plenty of inspiring, rousing beauty to enrich the soul of America and the world. His small group of books should be in every college in the land, where they can be read and discussed, for he was of the very soil that gave him life.

Vachel Lindsay was from Springfield, Illinois, that gave Abraham Lincoln to the world. He would have been Lincoln's friend, had he been born earlier. Both now hallow the very ground where they sleep.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Soul of a Dog."

STEPS TO GET MEN FOR WAR AND JOBS TOLD

Washington, April 3 (AP)—This is what the government is doing through Selective Service to find men for war and war jobs. Terrific emphasis has been placed on drafting all available men between 18 and 26.

But draft boards have been instructed not to let this interfere with regular induction of men over 26 and up to 38.

The classification—and therefore the right to deferment—of all deferred men between 18 and 38 in industry and agriculture is being reviewed.

Draft boards, however, have been instructed to concentrate first on those between 18 and 26.

In the 18-26 age group the real crackdown is on those with non-agricultural deferments. Less emphasis has been placed on the farm-deferred. For example:

Called For Physicals
All the 18 to 26-year old men in 2A and 2B—those deferred in non-agricultural jobs—are being given pre-induction physical examinations now.

The farm-deferred in the same age group are not being given those physicals although farm draft boards have been told to re-examine the right of any farm workers to stay in a deferred classification.

The pre-induction physicals for the 18-26 group in 2A and 2B do not mean they will be moved right into the Army. The draft boards can leave them in 2A and 2B until their deferments are cancelled.

Great chunks of deferment for that industrially-deferred age group are being—and will continue to be—wiped out and the examinations now will speed up their induction later.

Limited Service for Some
Some in that class, of course, will continue to be deferred because of their essentiality but the details of that are being worked out now.

Those physicals—for the 18-26 group in 2A and 2B—will serve other purposes, too.

They will show who in that group is 4-F, physically incapable of military duty, and who is capable of only limited military service.

A 2A or 2B man, found to be 4-F or of only limited military value, can be left in the 2A or 2B classification as long as he remains in essential work.

The Army regularly takes a certain percentage of 1A men for limited service, and Congress may authorize forcing 4-F's into essential work, even if it means drafting them into an army labor battalion.

Many To Be Drafted
In industry there are 574,000 men under 26 deferred, 330,000 of them non-farmers. In agriculture 613,000 under 26 are deferred, 530,000 of them non-farmers.

The total number of men between 18 and 38 deferred in industry and agriculture—3,677,000 in industry and 1,722,000 in agriculture—is 5,399,000.

Of that total Selective Service figures 230,000 men must be drafted.

State Faces Lower Egg Production

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Pennsylvania faces a falling egg production, the federal-state crop reporting service said today, basing its prediction on infertile eggs resulting from lower quality feed.

"Fewer baby chicks are being produced by commercial hatcheries," the agency said in a statement.

"Fewer chicks now means fewer laying pullets for next fall, and observers say there are bound to be fewer eggs produced next winter."

"Hatcherymen report they set eight per cent more eggs in February than they did for the same month last year but they got four per cent fewer chicks. The answer appears to be that there are more infertile eggs this year, and that there is a greater percentage of eggs in which the germ dies before hatching process can be completed."

The service added that "some hatcherymen attribute the 1944 increase in 'dead germ' rejects to the lower quality of feed now available."

GOP WATCHING WISCONSIN VOTE ON DELEGATES

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Republicans from Maine to California, who like to ride the bandwagon will watch tomorrow's Wisconsin primary for what may be a decisive boost or downward shove for one or more of four presidential possibilities.

Almost anything can happen in Wisconsin, where the Republican primaries are open to Democrats and Progressives as well, and where Wendell L. Willkie has been campaigning personally against three absentees for election of convention delegate states.

Although Willkie has described the election as "vital," there were many Republicans who thought the result might well be inconclusive, with some of the 24 delegates going to Willkie, and others to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, Lieut. Commander Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor, or Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Might Boost Dewey
Party members here said that if Willkie collects a majority of the delegates, his candidacy will be given a decided impetus, particularly if he can follow through with a similar victory in the Nebraska primary a week later.

A failure of his town-hopping personal tour of the state, on the other hand, might be psychologically lethal.

Election of a majority of delegates pledged to Dewey, despite the New York Governor's request that they withdraw from the race, would send Dewey stock soaring. Election of an appreciable number of delegates would make Stassen and MacArthur contenders, also.

(Dewey's supporters today claimed 106 delegates—82 of New York's 85 and at least 20 of North Carolina's 25. This estimate would put him out in front of other potential nominees.)

The Wisconsin results are bound to have their effect in other states where one or all of the four men will compete for delegates, either openly or behind scenes at conventions. Any indication that the bandwagon is rolling toward one will give him an advantage in these decisions.

While Wisconsin held the limelight, there was interest also in an attempt by a group of Dewey supporters to enter a slate of 15 delegates pledged to him in Oregon's May 19 primary. Dewey has asked his supporters to stay out, but they reserved a decision until tomorrow when the filing period closes.

Willkie's name is on the ballot there in the preferential primary and even some of his opponents previously had conceded he was in line to get the support of the state's delegation to the convention.

Manpower To Be Biggest Shortage

Cleveland, O., April 3 (AP)—Most acute of all wartime shortages, manpower will continue to be a major problem for industry and the nation throughout 1944. The Federal Reserve bank of Cleveland announced today in its monthly business review.

The review said manpower is being affected by rumors of shifts in war production which cause increased labor turnover as employees seek security in the postwar period.

The report, encompassing parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky in the Fourth Federal Reserve district, added:

"Further inroads by the draft into industry are almost certain to complicate the production problem. Key positions will be extremely difficult to replace in the transportation, coal, rubber and lumber and pulp industries."

POLITICS TO BE BARRED FROM SPECIAL TERM

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Republican and Democratic legislative leaders today agreed politics should be barred from Tuesday's soldier-vote special session conference, called by Governor Martin.

The Governor, in announcing his decision to call the lawmakers back to the capital about May 1 to liberalize soldier voting, scheduled the bipartisan conference in his office to discuss the problem before issuing the formal call.

He has consistently emphasized the only reason for the session is to assure everyone in military service a vote, and has said dropping of registration as a requirement for balloting and extending the time element are the two chief aims.

Democratic House Leader Reuben E. Cohen, of Philadelphia, called for "a political holiday" at the preparatory conference and added:

"We hope our meeting with the Governor will help the soldier. The session can be brief if the proposals are proper and of benefit to the armed forces in making it easier for them to vote."

Democratic State Chairman David L. Lawrence said his wish in attending the conference is to lay plans "to pass legislation that would give every soldier a ballot."

FATHER-DADS MAY RECEIVE TAX REFUNDS

New York, April 3 (AP)—One silver lining appeared in the father-draft clouds today as income tax experts calculated that many draftees would be eligible for a windfall of "folding money" in addition to their mustering-out pay.

The experts said that many father draftees would get back the major part of the money withheld by their employers for income tax purposes—provided they enter the armed services by around July 1.

Any resultant windfall probably will be returned by the government to the soldier or his family by mid-1945—or about three months after the income tax blank is figured out on March 15, these sources said.

Here is the way income tax authorities figure it: When the family man goes into the Army, his military pay is non-taxable unless it amounts to more than $1,500 a year (few fathers entering by mid-year will advance fast enough from the ranks to make more than this).

Money paid his family as government allowance is considered a gift and therefore non-taxable.

Consequently, the father entering by July 1 will have received in civilian money—or taxable pay—only half as much as he ordinarily would make in a year.

Frequently the taxable income left will be about even with or only slightly above the man's ordinary personal exemptions and deductions—indicating a major part of the withholding tax will have to be returned.

FARM WASTES TO BE TURNED INTO GAS, COAL

Cleveland, April 3 (AP)—A post-war plan for making the world's gasoline, and later its coal, from farm crop wastes, forests and seaweeds was presented to the American chemical society here today.

The plan is based on a newly completed laboratory process developed during the past 18 years by Dr. E. Berl of the Carnegie Institute of technology, Pittsburgh.

Commercial perfection of the process would take time, but Dr. Berl indicated the method is simpler and cheaper than present synthetic gasoline processes.

Can Make Oils, Gas, Coal
He predicted that in the world of tomorrow there need be no have-not nations for coal and oil. He said he has information that England already is planning a carbohydrate empire, probably in Africa, to develop postwar gasoline. The tropics may be the most productive of all gasoline areas.

Dr. Berl puts plant wastes in a cooker which causes them to burn internally, consuming their own internal oxygen. When the oxygen is gone they become hydrocarbons. The product of the cooker is a jelly-like mass which he termed a Diesel fuel without further refinement. Adding hydrogen produces oils, gasoline or coal and cokes.

Synthetic Gasoline
This synthetic coal looks somewhat different than bituminous but is superior to the sulphur bearing natural coals, and burns more readily.

Dr. Berl said one year's farm crop wastes of the United States could by this process make enough gasoline to run 32,000,000 cars for a year.

Sugar cane is especially good, because even after all the sugar has been extracted, the gasoline yield is still high. Other good gasoline sources include cornstalks, sweet potatoes, sorghum, grass, leaves, Irish moss, seaweed, algae, wood and sawdust.

Grain for Rubber
A cheaper, simpler way for making grain crop butadiene for synthetic rubber was reported by Dr. Donald P. Othmer of the Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.

This process ferments the grain, and then uses new solvents to obtain a form of butylene glycol, a substance resembling glycerine, which makes butadiene. The latter is combined with styrene to form synthetic rubber. Butadiene is three-quarters of the rubber.

Dr. Othmer also predicted autos and homes could be cooled by small and comparatively inexpensive units using certain chemicals, like activated carbon, the poison gas mask material, to remove heat by attracting hot gases so that they give up their heat to the solid.

An Evening Thought

Speak the truth by all means; be bold and fearless in your rebuke of error, and in your keener rebuke of wrong doing; but be human, and loving, and gentle, and brotherly while.—W. M. Punshon.

Just Folks

MAN'S POSSIBILITY
As the doctor on his hands. You may say: "He's seven pounds and although now very small May some day be six feet tall." But when measurements are made, To the ounce when he is weighed, Noied shade of hair and eyes, Still a mystery he lies, For there's none allowed to see What his influence will be.

In that cradle there may stay One to change the world some day; One to come, as one before, From a humble cottage door, To stand firm for what seems best; Be the friend of all oppressed; To be gentle as a child; To be scoffed at and reviled, But, the last shard being hurled, Unto freedom lead the world.

This is mankind's only need: One with faith enough to lead; One, however lowly born, Brave enough to stand to scorn; One to say, when cynics smirk: "I must do my father's work!" One to stand from right unsuayed However friends persuade, And there's none so wise on earth Who can tell a baby's worth.

Today's Talk

VACHEL LINDSAY
The same thing that has bred all wars, this one especially, and which has allowed the great enunciators and poets to die at our very feet, is what killed and stilled the voice of Vachel Lindsay, a poet probably with but one competitor as a John the Baptist singer—and that one America's Walt Whitman.

The fame and acclaim of Whitman have spread over continents, yet Vachel Lindsay's blessed memory remains even now wrapped only in the hearts of those who loved and admired him in life.

Paratroopers Fill English Sky At Review

Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower watched this mass parachute descent during a recent inspection of paratroopers and gliders somewhere in England.

GOP WATCHING WISCONSIN VOTE ON DELEGATES

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Republicans from Maine to California, who like to ride the bandwagon will watch tomorrow's Wisconsin primary for what may be a decisive boost or downward shove for one or more of four presidential possibilities.

Almost anything can happen in Wisconsin, where the Republican primaries are open to Democrats and Progressives as well, and where Wendell L. Willkie has been campaigning personally against three absentees for election of convention delegate status.

Although Willkie has described the election as "vital," there were many Republicans who thought the result might well be inconclusive, with some of the 24 delegates going to Willkie, and others to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York.

Lieut. Commander Harold E. Stassen, former Minnesota governor, or Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Might Boost Dewey
Party members here said that if Willkie collects a majority of the delegates, his candidacy will be given a decided impetus, particularly if he can follow through with a similar victory in the Nebraska primary a week later.

A failure of his town-hopping personal tour of the state, on the other hand, might be psychologically lethal.

Election of a majority of delegates pledged to Dewey, despite the New York Governor's request that they withdraw from the race, would send Dewey stock soaring. Election of an appreciable number of delegates would make Stassen and MacArthur contenders, also.

(Dewey's supporters today claimed 106 delegates—82 of New York's 85 and at least 20 of North Carolina's 25. This estimate would put him out in front of other potential nominees.)

The Wisconsin results are bound to have their effect in other states where one or all of the four men will compete for delegates, either openly or behind scenes at conventions. Any indication that the bandwagon is rolling toward one will give him an advantage in these decisions.

While Wisconsin held the limelight, there was interest also in an attempt by a group of Dewey supporters to enter a slate of 15 delegates pledged to him in Oregon's May 19 primary.

Dewey has asked his supporters to stay out, but they reserved a decision until tomorrow when the filing period closes.

Willkie's name is on the ballot there in the preferential primary and even some of his opponents previously had conceded he was in line to get the support of the state's delegation to the convention.

State Faces Lower Egg Production

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Pennsylvania faces a falling egg production, the federal-state crop reporting service said today, basing its prediction on infertile eggs resulting from lower quality feed.

"Fewer baby chicks are being produced by commercial hatcheries," the agency said in a statement. "Fewer chicks now means fewer laying pullets for next fall, and observers say there are bound to be fewer eggs produced next winter."

"Hatcherymen report they set eight per cent more eggs in February than they did for the same month last year but they got four per cent fewer chicks. The answer appears to be that there are more infertile eggs this year, and that there is a greater percentage of eggs in which the germ dies before hatching process can be completed."

The service added that "some hatcherymen attribute the 1944 increase in 'dead perm' rejects to the lower quality of feed now available."

Manpower To Be Biggest Shortage

Cleveland, O., April 3 (AP)—Most acute of all wartime shortages, manpower will continue to be a major problem for industry and the nation throughout 1944. The Federal Reserve bank of Cleveland announced today in its monthly business review.

The review said manpower is being affected by rumors of shifts in war production which cause increased labor turnover as employees seek security in the postwar period.

The report, encompassing parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky in the Fourth Federal Reserve district, added:

"Further inroads by the draft into industry are almost certain to complicate the production problem. Key positions will be extremely difficult to replace in the transportation, coal, rubber and lumber and pulp industries."

POLITICS TO BE BARRED FROM SPECIAL TERM

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Republican and Democratic legislative leaders today agreed politics should be barred from Tuesday's soldier-vote special session conference, called by Governor Martin.

The Governor, in announcing his decision to call the lawmakers back to the capitol about May 1 to liberalize soldier voting, scheduled the bipartisan conference in his office to discuss the problem before issuing the formal call.

He has consistently emphasized the only reason for the session is to assure everyone in military service a vote, and has said dropping of registration as a requirement for balloting and extending the time element are the two chief aims.

Democratic House Leader Reuben E. Cohen, of Philadelphia, called for "a political holiday" at the preparatory conference and added:

"We hope our meeting with the Governor will help the soldier. The session can be brief if the proposals are proper and of benefit to the armed forces in making it easier for them to vote."

Democratic State Chairman David L. Lawrence said his wish in attending the conference is to lay plans "to pass legislation that would give every soldier a ballot."

UNEMPLOYMENT CHECKS
Unemployment compensation checks totalling $212 were issued by the state treasurer to residents of the Gettysburg district during the week ending Friday, it was announced today.

FARM WASTES TO BE TURNED INTO GAS, COAL

Cleveland, April 3 (AP)—A post-war plan for making the world's gasoline and later its coal, from farm crop wastes, forests and seaweeds was presented to the American chemical society here today.

The plan is based on a newly completed laboratory process developed during the past 18 years by Dr. E. Berl of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh.

Commercial perfection of the process would take time, but Dr. Berl indicated the method is simpler and cheaper than present synthetic gasoline processes.

Can Make Oils, Gas, Coal

He predicted that in the world of tomorrow there need be no have-not nations for coal and oil. He said he has information that England already is planning a carbohydrate empire, probably in Africa, to develop postwar gasoline. The tropics may be the most productive of all gasoline areas.

Dr. Berl puts plant wastes in a cooker which causes them to burn internally, consuming their own internal oxygen. When the oxygen is gone they become hydrocarbons. The product of the cooker is a jelly-like mass which he termed a Diesel fuel without further refinement. Adding hydrogen produces oils, gasoline or coal and cokes.

Synthetic Gasoline

This synthetic coal looks somewhat different than bituminous but is superior to the sulphur bearing natural coals, and burns more readily.

Dr. Berl said one year's farm crop wastes of the United States could by this process make enough gasoline to run 32,000,000 cars for a year.

Sugar cane is especially good, because even after all the sugar has been extracted, the gasoline yield is still high. Other good gasoline sources include cornstalks, sweet potatoes, sorghum, grass, leaves, Irish moss, seaweed, algae, wood and sawdust.

Grain for Rubber

A cheaper, simpler way for making grain crop butadiene for synthetic rubber was reported by Dr. Donald P. Othmer of the Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.

This process ferments the grain, and then uses new solvents to obtain a form of butylene glycol, a substance resembling glycerine, which makes butadiene. The latter is combined with styrene to form synthetic rubber. Butadiene is three-quarters of the rubber.

Dr. Othmer also predicted autos and homes could be cooled by small and comparatively inexpensive units using certain chemicals, like activated carbon, the poison gas mask material, to remove heat by attracting hot gases so that they give up their heat to the solid.

Scranton Lad Wins Oratorical Contest

Harrisburg, April 3 (AP)—Pennsylvania's new champion high school orator is William Quinn, Jr., 17-year-old Scranton senior.

Quinn yesterday won the annual American Legion oratorical contest and the Governor Martin award, entitling him to a four-year scholarship in a Pennsylvania college. Runner-up was David Spinner, of Johnstown.

The contest was open to only high school seniors.

Woman Pilot Killed At New Cumberland

New Cumberland, Pa., April 4 (AP)—A woman pilot was killed today in an airplane crash shortly after the single-seated plane took off from the New Cumberland airport.

The ship, identified by the New Cumberland airport as an Army plane, crashed into the side of a hill on a farm about two miles from the airfield.

Eye-witnesses said the woman flier was thrown clear of the plane. They said that the plane went into a half circle and then dived a few minutes after leaving the airfield.

The plane caught fire but the flames were extinguished quickly. Army officers took charge of the wreckage. The identity of the victim was not immediately disclosed.

Sabath To Probe "Idle" Officers

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Rep. Adolph Sabath (D-Ill.) dean of the House, today undertook a one-man investigation of what he called "reliable information" that 30,000 Army officers "are sitting around with nothing to do."

"The cocktail lounges all over the country are full of them," he declared. "I want to know why the Army doesn't put them out in the field to get experience instead of letting them sit around in cocktail bars and swivel chairs. We have so many of them they are just getting in each other's way."

Sabath said he proposed to get an explanation from the secretary of war, the undersecretary of war, General George C. Marshall, chief of staff, and Lieut. Gen. Breton B. Somervell, commanding general of the Army supply forces.

KILLED BY STREET CAR Johnstown, Pa., April 13 (AP)—Frank Valdivia, 38, was instantly killed yesterday when struck by a street car while crossing the street here yesterday, Deputy Coroner Joseph Goveker reported.

MISS H. COPE

Since her retirement in 1926 much of her time has been devoted to church and Christian education work and to the activities of the Gettysburg chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Cope was a member of the Gettysburg Presbyterian church and the Missionary society of the church. For 5 years, as long as her health permitted, she was superintendent of the Week-Day Bible school of that church and for many years taught the Women's Bible class in the Sunday school.

An active member of the local DAR chapter, Miss Cope for a number of years had headed the committee which conducted the annual senior essay contests. One of her last acts before being taken ill in February was to select judges and complete arrangements for this year's contests.

Funeral Wednesday Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Robert E. Wible, Baltimore street, and Mrs. Harry B. Martin, with whom she lived. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender funeral home, Carlisle street, with her pastor, the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, and the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, officiating.

Interment will be made in the Evergreen cemetery.

Friends may call Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock at the funeral home.

RAY HOFFMAN

"Whatever success the rationing program in Adams county has attained, is due to the support it has received from the citizens of this community. It is their program as well as it is everyone's war."

"In leaving I want to pay tribute to the volunteers who stood by to help in the rush and confusion of the first hectic year; without this assistance, the program would have failed."

"I appreciate the association with, and the cooperation of you and the others of the district office, the local boards and the employees of the office. All have given generously of their talents and energy, and each has worked faithfully until each task was finished."

Faithful Service Accepting "with sincere regret," Mr. McPherson's resignation, Frank J. Loftus, district director, wrote in part: "Your faithful service for more than two years as county chairman and later as local chairman have been greatly appreciated."

"You have willingly given your time and we have been attracted by your efficient management and supervision of the War Price and Rationing work in your county."

"On account of your most excellent services, it is with regret that this letter is to be considered an acceptance of your resignation. Your leadership and sympathetic understanding will be greatly missed."

ESCAPE from PARIS

By Marion McClure Stewart

Chapter 13

When Adrienne reached the street it was already dark, and she hastened in order to reach home before the curfew hour. Her mind was full of confused dazed impressions, in which the memory of her marriage to Johnny seemed unreal, a figment of her imagination. One fact stood out with startling clearness in the midst of chaos. It was the knowledge that Johnny loved her. This momentary happiness was clouded by the fact that his life was constantly in danger while she remained in Paris. Now that Schaefer had been informed by his men of the departure of an unknown man in workman's attire from the cafe, she knew that he would spare no effort to trace Johnny's whereabouts.

As she crossed the Rue de Rivoli, a guttural voice at her side stopped her.

"Bon soir Fraulein. You are out late alone tonight." Turning in sudden alarm she recognized Schaefer. Instantly her brain cleared.

"Yes Monsieur, but surely a cinema once in a while is a welcome distraction from life at present."

"Ach! So that is the form of distraction you have sought," he countered, glancing at her with the cynicism in his look that she found disturbing. "You are to be beautiful, Fraulein, to roam the streets of Paris at night, alone. I will be pleased if I may escort you home. But first will you have a cocktail with me at the Continental? It is not far from here."

"Thank you M'sieu", but I think it is a little late. I must be ready for my work early in the morning."

"I realize that you are a very young woman in this respect," Herr Schaefer turned and looked her fully in the face. "Yet in this instance Mamselle, it might be to your interest to give me a little of your company tonight."

"I don't understand, M'sieu."

There was a cool aloofness in her voice.

"Possibly I can make it quite clear if you will grant me the opportunity, Mademoiselle. What would you say if I were to state that it might not be to your own advantage alone but to the advantage of some one in whom you may be interested."

Adrienne's heart quickened. What did this man know about the underground movement, and above all what did he suspect in regard to Johnny? She wondered how she could match her wits against him. Yet her instinct warned her not to antagonize him.

"That sounds M'sieu as if you were about to confer a favor on me. Now that you have aroused my curiosity, I can't refuse to accept your invitation."

She felt instinctively that she had penetrated his cool front when he replied with what she felt was a degree of sincerity, "I was not always so wise in judging women, Fraulein, unfortunately. But one lives and learns."

A short walk along the Rue de Rivoli brought them to the Conti-

Carlisle Flyer In Pulusuk Isle Raid

Advanced Solomons Base, March 26 (Delayed) (AP)—Second Lt. Carl D. Alwood, Carlisle, Pa., was co-pilot aboard the Liberator bomber "Babes in Arms" when flight of Thirteenth Airforce Liberators today raided Pulusuk islands, dropping more than 30 tons of bombs.

Lt. Alwood said bad weather forced the Liberators to remain over the target for nearly an hour before they found a hole through which to drop their bombs. The flight involved nearly 1,900 miles and more than 12 hours in the air.

Gallatin Appointed Area Manpower Chief

Philadelphia, April 3 (AP)—The appointment of Wilbur P. Gallatin of York, as area Manpower commissioner for Pennsylvania District 5, has been announced by regional War Manpower Commission Director Frank L. McNamee.

Gallatin's office will be at 228 East Orange street, Lancaster, Pa. The district includes Lancaster, Lebanon, York, Harrisburg, Gettysburg and Chambersburg.

now that his professed knowledge of Johnny's whereabouts had been false.

"So you spoil the little romance I had woven about this 'munition worker' and yourself."

Before she could answer, she heard a voice in her ear, and saw that Herr Kapitlan Von Egert and his companion, Fraulein Lange were standing before them.

Woman Pilot Killed
At New Cumberland

New Cumberland, Pa., April 4 (AP)—A woman pilot was killed today in an airplane crash shortly after the single-seated plane took off from the New Cumberland airport.

The ship, identified by the New Cumberland airport as an Army plane, crashed into the side of a hill on a farm about two miles from the airport.

Eye-witnesses said the woman pilot was thrown clear of the plane. They said that the plane went into a half circle and then dived a few minutes after leaving the airport.

The plane caught fire but the flames were extinguished quickly. Army officers took charge of the wreckage. The identity of the victim was not immediately disclosed.

Sabath To Probe
"Idle" Officers

Washington, April 3 (AP)—Rep. Adolph Sabath (D-Ill.) dean of the House, today undertook a one-man investigation of what he called "reliable information" that 30,000 Army officers "are sitting around with nothing to do."

"The cocktail lounges all over the country are full of them," he declared. "I want to know why the Army doesn't put them out in the field to get experience instead of letting them sit around in cocktail bars and swivel chairs. We have so many of them they are just getting in each other's way."

Sabath said he proposed to get an explanation from the secretary of war, the undersecretary of war, General George C. Marshall, chief of staff, and Lieut. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, commanding general of the Army supply forces.

KILLED BY STREET CAR

Johnstown, Pa., April 13 (AP)—Frank Valdivia, 36, was instantly killed yesterday when struck by a street car while crossing the street here yesterday. Deputy Coroner Joseph Goveker reported.

RUSH BUSINESS IS REPORTED AT HORNER OFFICE

Business continued to be brisk at the office of the register and recorder, Winfield G. Horner, at the court house today with property transfers, and in some instances accompanying mortgages, forming the greater part of the steady flow of legal papers over the counter.

Week-end transfers in addition to those listed Saturday include:

Craig V. Baugus and Eva M. Baugus, of Pasadena, Maryland, bought from J. M. and Mary T. Turner, Tyrone township, a 103-acre property in that township.

Virginia S. Grove and Edna M. Shanefelter, Union township, sold to William J. Clara B. and Angeline Feaser, a four-acre property in Union township.

Theron W. Spangler as attorney-in-fact for Harvey E. and Ina V. Duncan, Littlestown, sold to Mary A. Lucas, Pulaski, Virginia, four acres in Union township.

Other Transfers
Harry N. Hopkins, Sr., and Lena S. Hopkins, Bel Air, Maryland, sold to Harry N. Hopkins, Jr., and Elizabeth F. Hopkins, Mt. Pleasant township, 148-acre property in Mt. Pleasant township.

Roger K. Sell, Genieve Sell and other heirs-in-law of Charles D. Sell, sold to I. H. Crouse and Sons, Littlestown, 102-acre property in Germany township and the eastern edge of Littlestown.

John W. and Lillie M. Little, Littlestown, sold to William V. Sneringer, Littlestown, a property at the south side of East King street, Littlestown.

Claude B. and Luella R. Forry, York county, sold to Lottie L. Whitmore, Straban township, 13 acres in Hamilton township.

Ida M. Goulden, Emmitsburg, sold to Charles P. Haller, Jr., and Margaret E. Haller, Wilkes-Barre, a 113-acre property in Liberty township.

G. W. and Eleanor R. Koser, Biglerville, sold to M. E. Knouse, Arden, a 218-acre farm in Butler township.

Russell and Caroline E. Shoemaker, Oxford township, sold to Francis U. and Sarah B. L. Thomas, Butler township, a seven-acre property in that township.

Raymond E. and K. Maud Deardorff sold to Paul M. and Edna S. Settle, all of Franklin township, a 105-acre property in that township.

"CHUTIST HITS TREE

Franklin, Pa., April 3 (AP)—A tree safely cushioned the parachute jump of Lt. W. J. Carroll, 26, of the Army Air Transport Command, whose pursuit plane developed engine trouble and crashed at Wesley, 16 miles south of here, yesterday.

MISS H. COPE

in the high school. She also was director of high school dramatics.

Since her retirement in 1926 much of her time has been devoted to church and Christian education work and to the activities of the Gettysburg chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Cope was a member of the Gettysburg Presbyterian church and the Missionary society of the church. For 5 years, as long as her health permitted, she was superintendent of the Week-Day Bible school of that church and for many years taught the Women's Bible class in the Sunday school.

An active member of the local DAR chapter, Miss Cope for a number of years had headed the committee which conducted the annual essay contests. One of her last acts before being taken ill in February was to select judges and complete arrangements to this year's contests.

Funeral Wednesday
Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Robert E. Wible, Baltimore street, and Mrs. Harry B. Martin, with whom she lived. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender funeral home, Carlisle street, with her pastor, the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, and the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, officiating.

Interment will be made in the Evergreen cemetery.

Friends may call Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock at the funeral home.

RAY HOFFMAN

McPherson set March 27 as the effective date and wrote:

"Whatever success the rationing program in Adams county has attained, is due to the support it has received from the citizens of this community. It is their program as well as it is everyone's war."

"In leaving I want to pay tribute to the volunteers who stood by to help in the rush and confusion of the first hectic year; without this assistance, the program would have failed."

"I appreciate the association with, and the cooperation of, you and the others of the district office, the local boards and the employees of the office. All have given generously of their talents and energy, and each has worked faithfully until each task was finished."

Faithful Service
Accepting "with sincere regret," Mr. McPherson's resignation, Frank J. Loftus, district director, wrote in part: "Your faithful service for more than two years as county chairman and later as local chairman have been greatly appreciated."

"You have willingly given your time and we have been attracted by your efficient management and supervision of the War Price and Rationing work in your county."

"On account of your most excellent services, it is with regret that this letter is to be considered an acceptance of your resignation. Your leadership and sympathetic understanding will be greatly missed."

ESCAPE from PARIS

by Marion McClure Stewart

Chapter 13

When Adrienne reached the street it was already dark, and she hastened in order to reach home before the curfew hour. Her mind was full of confused dazed impressions, in which the memory of her marriage to Johnny seemed unreal, a fragment of her imagination. One fact stood out with startling clearness in the midst of chaos. It was the knowledge that Johnny loved her. This momentary happiness was clouded by the fact that his life was constantly in danger while she remained in Paris. Now that Schaefer had been informed by his men of the departure of an unknown man in workman's attire from the cafe, she knew that he would spare no effort to trace Johnny's whereabouts.

As she crossed the Rue de Rivoli, a guttural voice at her side stopped her.

"Bon soir Fraulein. You are out late alone tonight." Turning in sudden alarm she recognized Schaefer. Instantly her brain cleared.

"Yes Monsieur, but surely a cinema once in a while is a welcome distraction from life at present."

"Ach! So that is the form of distraction you have sought," he countered, glancing at her with a slyness in his look that she found disturbing. "You are to be beautiful, Fraulein, to roam the streets of Paris at night, alone. I will be pleased if I may escort you home. But first will you have a cocktail with me at the Continental? It is not far from here."

"Thank you M'sieu, but I think it is a little late. I must be ready for my work early in the morning."

"I realize that you are a very wise young woman in this respect," Herr Schaefer turned and looked her fully in the face. "Yet in this instance Mamselle, it might be to your interest to give me a little of your company tonight."

"I don't understand, M'sieu."

There was a cool aloofness in her voice.

"Possibly I can make it quite clear if you will grant me the opportunity, Mamselle. What would you say if I were to state that it might not be to your own advantage alone but to the advantage of someone in whom you may be interested?"

Adrienne's heart quickened. What did this man know about the underground movement, and above all what did he suspect in regard to Johnny? She wondered how she could match her wits against him. Yet her instinct warned her not to antagonize him.

"That sounds M'sieu as if you were about to confer a favor on me. Now that you have aroused my curiosity, I can't refuse to accept your invitation."

She felt instinctively that she had penetrated his cool front when he replied with what she felt was a degree of sincerity, "I was not always so wise in judging women, Fraulein unfortunately. But one lives and learns."

A short walk along the Rue de Rivoli brought them to the Conti-

mental Hotel, where as Adrienne knew, a large number of Nazi officers had taken up their quarters.

Schaefer hailed a waiter and ordered two champagne cocktails.

Adrienne noticed they were being observed by a couple sitting at a table in their vicinity. The man was a Nazi officer, stiffly correct in appearance. The woman was a tall blonde, Teutonic in appearance. She recognized Captain Von Eggert and returned his bow somewhat formally. His companion was regarding her with a marked interest.

Adrienne remembered the flowers he had sent her, which she had not acknowledged.

"I think I have been the lady who is with Von Eggert somewhere before," she remarked casually to Schaefer.

He turned his head as she spoke and bowed rather distantly to Von Eggert.

"No doubt, perhaps wearing uniform. That is Fraulein Augusta Lange of the Women's Communication Corps."

"Will you have a cigarette, Fraulein?" he asked. She accepted it, and he bent over with his lighter.

"Now, Fraulein," he sipped his cocktail, fixing his eyes on her, "this of all, I think a great deal of your charm and your intelligence. You are a woman I would desire for my wife, were I free, and were it possible. But even my fondness for you does not blind me to the fact that you have in your possession information that I am anxious to obtain. Mamselle, she lowered his voice. "If you will divulge to me some information as to the workings of the Underground, I will repay you in full—even to granting freedom to the man in whom you are interested."

It took 581,000 gallons of oil to send American bombers to their first assault on Rome and bring them back to base. Over 25,000,000 chocolate bars were sent overseas last year to be distributed to American troops and prisoners of war by the Red Cross.

"Will your car let your country down?..."

"Maybe that question seems far-fetched—but believe me it isn't. And here's why..."

★ "Sure, we're all short of help these days—and I may need a little more time, but you can depend on me to do these jobs carefully."

Fresh oil—that's most important right now to save your engine from excessive, life-shortening wear.

Verified Lubrication for your chassis is a must, too. Every moving part, every place where metal rubs against metal, needs the right lubrication to keep it from wearing out!

Tires should be checked right away... maybe switched for longer life.

The battery needs looking over, perhaps given a full charge.

The radiator ought to be drained, all the sediment flushed out.

Transmission and differential need checking, too.

"Will your car let your country down?..."

"Maybe that question

seems far-fetched—

but believe me it isn't.

And here's why...

★ "Sure, we're all short of help these days—and I may need a little more time, but you can depend on me to do these jobs carefully."

□ Fresh oil—that's most important right now to save your engine from excessive, life-shortening wear.

□ Verified Lubrication for your chassis is a must, too. Every moving part, every place where metal rubs against metal, needs the right lubrication to keep it from wearing out!

□ Tires should be checked right away... maybe switched for longer life.

□ The battery needs looking over, perhaps given a full charge.

□ The radiator ought to be drained, all the sediment flushed out.

□ Transmission and differential need checking, too.

"TRANSPORTATION'S getting tougher every day. If you've got a car that runs, you've got part of the nation's vital transportation right in your hands. It's your duty to make it last. Yours and mine.

"There isn't much you have to do. But it must be done... and done now!

"Let's check it off on the list at the left.

"Come on in... today. This is Spring check-up time. Remember, keeping your car going is a job for both of us that's got to be done. And I can't help unless you let me!"
